

Michel de MONTIGNY - Album : J'ai besoin d'un Ange

Titre No 10: Remember who loves you

Paroles:

When it's all over
And time is short
And I have to fly away
I believe it's hard to say

That I'am so sorry
It's all destinies to me
I feel I didn't love you
As much as I could do

I'll remember you
I will never forget you
I'll be your friend
And if you need me
I'll be there for you
Anything for you
I will always love you

You have to be strong
You know life goes on
And on and on
Until the dawn of the day come
Till it's time to say goodnight

There's no more to say
But remember good times
And hope to meet in another life
Where our time belongs to us

I'll remember you
I will never forget you
I'll be your friend
And if you need me
I'll be there for you
Anything for you
Please remember who loves you
