

X

=

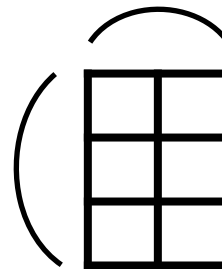

X

=

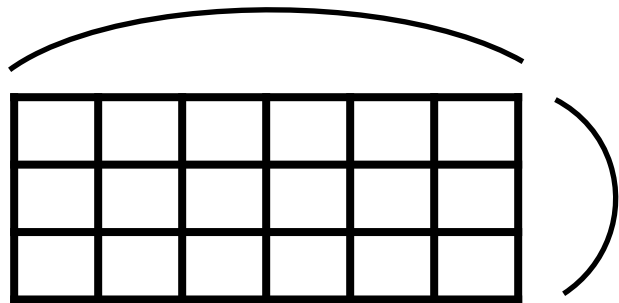

X

=

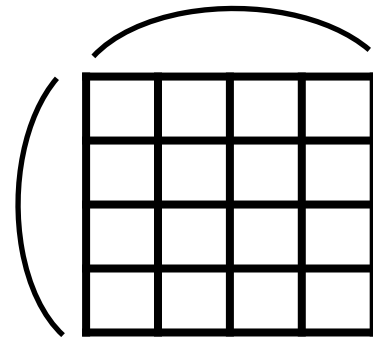

X

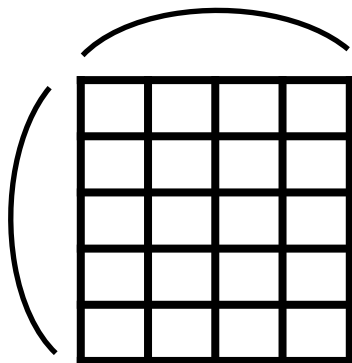

=

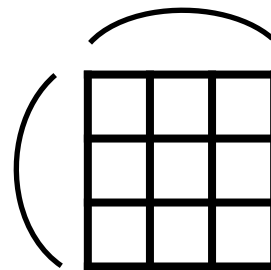

$$X =$$

$$X =$$

$$X =$$

$$X =$$

A 3x8 grid of squares. A curved line arches over the top of the grid. A second curved line is positioned to the right of the grid, starting from the middle row and curving inward.

---

X =

A 4x4 grid of squares. A curved line arches over the top of the grid. A second curved line is positioned to the left of the grid, starting from the middle row and curving inward.

---

X =

A 4x4 grid of squares. A curved line arches over the top of the grid. A second curved line is positioned to the left of the grid, starting from the middle row and curving inward.

---

X =

A 3x6 grid of squares. A curved line arches over the top of the grid. A second curved line is positioned to the left of the grid, starting from the middle row and curving inward.

---

X =