

My Little Weekly / Wednesday November 20th 2019

A LA UNE

France beat Australia in a big tennis competition !

France's ladies' tennis team won the Fed Cup against favourites Australia in Perth, Australia, on November 10th. This is the third French victory in this contest, after 1997 and 2003.

DID YOU KNOW

The earliest version of tennis comes from France, in the Middle Ages. At that time, the game was called "jeu de paume" and was played without a racket.

supporters - hand - watch - arm - wig - glasses - make-up

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

Fishermen were looking for lobsters when they caught... a young deer !
It was lost in the ocean near Harrington, US,
when they rescued it, on November 4th.

