Those who have listened closely to Stevie Wonder's very first hit remember a question that has just now been fully answered:

"What key, what key?" asked the frantic handler's voice on the opening to "Fingertips, Part II."

"The key of life!" is the reply some fifteen years later, the eternal message of Stevie Wonder's sixteenth and finest LP "Songs In the Key Of Life."

Those who have a head for higher mathematics will also recall that Stevie's last two albums — released less than a year apart — each won five Grammy Awards and sold over one million copies. Simple arithmetic leads one to the possibility that "Songs In the Key Of Life" — over two years in the making, consisting of two solid LPs plus an EP bonus — could win an unprecedented 10 Grammy Awards and sell well over two million copies.

Those who number themselves, without question, among the ranks of tried and true Stevie Wonder fans — and that includes just about everybody these days — will know, without asking, that "Songs In the Key Of Life" adds up to the most massive and awesome work of pop music in the 1970's.

There are 21 tunes in all. Some are out-and-out love and/or lust songs, the kind fans of "You Are the Sunshine Of My Life" and "Boogie On Reggae Woman" will frenzy for. Others are songs with social significance a la "You Haven't Done Nothing" and "Living For The City." Still others like earlier hits "Higher Ground" and "Heaven Help Us All" bear strong religious overtones. But along with the universal appeal of all these facets of Wonder the ace songwriter, "Songs In the Key Of Life" also unvels tunes that are much more personal than his past work — songs that give us our clearest insights yet into the mind of Stevie Wonder the human being.

The Wonder of Religious Experience opens the album with Stevie playing the radio preacher, asking us to send our donations to Box L-O-V-E. It's followed by a sensual rocker urging us to "Have A Talk With God" when things get tough. And on "Saturn" (one of the songs contained on the bonus EP), Stevie creates a stunning science fiction paradise for all mankind, where the religion of the universe is peace and love.

The Wonder of Social Consciousness is also introduced on the very first side of the superalbum. "Village Ghetto Land" is a stark observation of a poverty situation. On the brighter side, "Pastime Paradise" is a happy Dixie-out-loudish celebration of the black pioneers in American music: Basie, Ellington, Armstrong and Fitzgerald. "Pastime Paradise" deals in the error of living in the past and the benefits of looking toward a more promising future. And "Black Man" is probably the first history lesson ever set to a disco beat — complete with a funky pop quiz at the close of class. Black Studies programs all over the nation will never be quite the same.

"Nkulelela/Es Una Historia/Am Singing" captures the interaction of African, Latin and American sounds and rhythms through consecutive Zulu, Spanish and English translations of the identical musical idea. The result is pure musical pleasure.

The Wonder of Pure Love doesn't come on through until the opening of Side Two. But then the romance flows like there's no stopping it. And with Wonder, there isn't.

"Knocks Me Off My Feet" is a rather energetic concept set against a relatively serene musical theme. But the contrast is indeed a knockout. In "Summer Soji," love and nature intertwine as the heart changes with the seasons. "Ordinary Pain" is a song of break-up, a two-part male/female blues that brings the form to new heights of passion and power.

"If It's Magic" is the album's sole harmonica/vocal solo — and an even more hypnotic piece because of its unique position. "A's" blends the eternity of "always" and the finality of "until" into one supreme statement of devotion everlasting. Meanwhile, “Another Star” looks at fidelity when the two lovers involved are not so ideally matched in their sense of commitment.

“Everyeye” is delivered in the style of a beauty pageant theme songs, celebrating the beauty of womanhood in its purest form. But “All Day Sucker” details the plight of manhood when she takes herself too seriously and doesn’t let you get too close.

We get really close to The Wonder of Stevie Himself in five songs that round out this masterful collection of music.

The first of these personal songs is an instrumental — a form Stevie hasn’t made much use of since his “Fingertips” days. “Contusion” brings us back to that fateful day in 1973 when an August car crash near Durham, North Carolina, almost took Stevie’s life. It takes us all there, closer than mere words ever could.

“I Wish” describes Stevie’s boyhood in a very brilliant first person. “Isn’t She Lovely?” is a father heaving with pride over his first daughter, Aisha Zakiya (meaning “life and intelligence”) while “Joy Inside My Tears” concerns the woman who, for Stevie, makes parental joy possible — his wife Yolanda.

“Easy Goin’ Evening (My Mama’s Call)” is the work song closing theme, also an instrumental, which allows us to glimpse the relationship between a younger Wonder and his mother. Stevie’s ability to speak as clearly with melody as with words is the key to the song’s effectiveness.

The overall key to appreciating the total scope of Wonder’s latest musical triumph is indeed “life.” It’s the one key that unlocks all doors. With awareness and faith, with love and insight. Through the magic of the key of life, all problems open up to their ideal solutions.

Happily, the key of life is one we all can play and sing in. At least with Stevie Wonder’s “Songs In The Key Of Life” there to show us how.

I've never considered myself an orator, or a politician, only a person who is fortunate enough, thanks to all of you, to become an artist from a chance to express the way he feels and hopefully the feelings of many other people. It is to me a fact that Stevie Wonder is the temporary someone of myself, even though we have come to know each other very well and realized because of who he is, the many doors that have been opened may have been closed to myself, Steviland Morris.

It is important that you do not permanently in your mind that I do not take a second for granted. For I believe it is that Stevie Wonder is the necessary vehicle on which Steviland Morris must be carried on his mission to spread love and liveliness. In every album that I have and shall do, it is not my goal for that to be better than that and the next to succeed the others, but only that I do and give the best I can at the time of my doing and doing and that only happens because of love and devotion that made me want to be a better someone.

“Songs In The Key Of Life” is only a conglomerate of thoughts in my subconscious that my Maker decided to give me the strength, the love and confidence. It is the only way my mind is able to bring to my conscious in ideas. An idea to me is a formed thought in the subconscious, the unknown and sometimes sought for impossibilities, but when believed strong enough, can become a reality. So let it be that I shall live the idea of the song and use its words at my sight into the unknown, but before positive tomorrow and I shall so where in evil darkness smile at the sun and its fall to me as if I were a pyramid give me the key in which I am to sing, and if it is a key that you too feel, may you join and sing with me.

My mind’s heart must be polygamous and my spirit is married to many and my love belongs to all.

Sincerely,

There are people who have let the problems of today
Lead them to conclude that for them life is not the way
But every problem has an answer and if your's you cannot find
You should talk it over to Him
He'll give you peace of mind
When you feel your life's too hard
Just go have a talk with God

Many of us feel we walk alone without a friend Never communicating with the One who lives within Forgetting all about the One who never ever lets you down
And you can talk to Him anytime He's always around
When you feel your life's too hard
Just go have a talk with God

See the people lock their doors

Beggars watch and eat their meals — from garbage cans

Broken glass is everywhere
It’s a bloody scene
Killing plagues the citizens
Unless they own police

Children play with rusted cars
Sores cover their hands
Politicians laugh and drink — drunk to all demands

Families buying dog food now
Starvation roams the streets
Babies die before they’re born

Music is a world within itself
With a language we all understand
With an equal opportunity
For all to sing, dance and clap their hands
But just because a record has a groove
Don't make it in the groove
But you can tell right away at letter A
When the people start to move

They can feel it all over
They can feel it all over people
They can feel it all over
They can feel it all over people

Music knows it is and always will Be one of the things that life just won't quit
But here are some of music's pioneers
That time will not allow us to forget
For there's Basie, Miller, Sachino
And the king of all, Sir Duke
And with a voice like Ella's ringing out
There's no way the band can lose

You can feel it all over
You can feel it all over people
You can feel it all over
You can feel it all over people

You can feel it all over
You can feel it all over people
You can feel it all over

Can't you feel it all over
Come on let's feel it all over people
You can feel it all over

And words from our hearts
Told only to the wind felt even without being said
I don't want to bore you with my trouble

ORDINARY PAIN
S. Wonder

When by the phone
In pain you sit
You very soon in your mind realize that it's not just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you by chance
Go knock on her door
Walkin' away you're convinced that it's much more Than just an ordinary pain in your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you catch up
But she says goodbye
Hold back your tears and before you start to cry
Say you feel unnecessary pain in your heart

Tell her you're glad
It's over in fact
Can she take with her the pain she brought you back
Takin' that ordinary pain from your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain from your heart

Don't fool yourself
But tell no one else
That it's more than just
An ordinary pain
In your heart
In your heart

Words and Music by STEVIE WONDER

When by the phone in vain you sit,
When you by chance go knock on her door, you very soon in your mind realize that it's not just an ordinary pain.
walkin' away you're convinced that it's much more than just an ordinary pain.

It's more than just an ordinary pain in your heart.

Don't fool yourself,

tell no one else that it's more than just an ordinary pain in your heart.

D.S. al Coda

You're just a masochistic fool,
You never listened when they said, because you knew my love was cruel.

"Don't let that girl go to your head."

Funky Rock Tempo
But like a playboy, you said no,
(Ordinary pain)

This little girl's mind you will blow
(Ordinary pain)

When you catch up
But she says goodbye,
Hold back your tears and before you start to cry
Say you feel unnecessary pain in your heart.

Tell her you're glad
It's over in fact,
Can she take with her the pain she brought you back
Takin' that ordinary pain from your heart;
It's more than just
An ordinary pain from your heart

Don't fool yourself,
But tell no one else
That it's more than just
An ordinary pain
In your heart
In your heart
In your heart.

ISN'T SHE LOVELY
S. Wonder

Isn't she lovely
Isn't she wonderful
Isn't she precious
Less than one minute old
I never thought through love we'd be Making one as lovely as she
But isn't she lovely made from love

Isn't she pretty
Truly the angel's best
Boy, I'm so happy
We have been heaven blessed
I can't believe what God has done
Through us He's given life to one
But isn't she lovely made from love

JOY INSIDE MY TEARS
S. Wonder

I've always come to the conclusion that 'but' is the way
Of asking for permission to lay something heavy on one's head
So I have tried to not be the one who'll fall into that line
But what I feel inside I think you should know

And baby that's you — you — you
Made life's his - to - ry
Cause you've brought some joy inside my tears
And you have done what no one thought could be
You've brought some joy inside my tears

I've always felt that tomorrow is for those who are too much afraid
To go past yesterday and start living for today
I feel that lasting moments are coming far and few between
So I should tell you of the happiness that you bring

Baby, baby it's you — you — you
Made life's his - to - ry
Oh baby, you've brought some joy inside my tears Baby you have done what no one thought could be
You brought some joy inside my tears
You brought some joy inside my tears
You brought some joy inside my tears

You've brought some joy inside my tears
Baby, baby you have done what no one thought could be
He—y, you brought some joy inside my tears
Gotta tell you
You you made life's his - to - ry
You brought some joy inside my tears
You brought some joy inside my tears
You brought some joy inside my tears
You brought some joy inside my tears

Baby baby baby you have done what no one thought could be
You brought some joy inside my tears

You made it baby you made it baby made it made life's his - to - ry
You you you made life's his - to - ry
You brought some joy inside my tears
You have done what no one thought could be

You brought some joy inside my tears

BLACK MAN

First man to die
For the flag we now hold high
Was a black man

The ground where we stand
With the flag held in our hand
Was the first redman's

Guide of a ship
On the first Columbus trip
Was a brown man

The railroads for trains
Came on tracking that was laid
By the yellow man

We pledge allegiance
All our lives
To the magic colors
Red, blue and white
But we all must be given
The liberty that we defend
For with justice not for all men
History will repeat again
It's time we learned
This World Was Made For All Men

Heart surgery
Was first done successfully
By a black man

Friendly man who died
But helped the pilgrims to survive
Was a redman

Farm workers rights
Were lifted to new heights

Incandescent light
Was invented to give sight

IF IT'S MAGIC
S. Wonder

If it's magic...
Then why can't it be everlasting
Like the sun that always shines
Like the poets endless rhyme
Like the galaxies in time

If it's pleasing...
Then why can't it be never leaving
Like the day that never fails
Like on seashores there are shells
Like the time that always tells

It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst

So...
If it's special
Then with it why aren't we as careful
As making sure we dress in style
Posing pictures with a smile
Keeping danger from a child

It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst

So......
If it's magic
Why can't we make it everlasting
Like the lifetime of the sun
It will leave no heart undone
For there's enough for everyone

if it's magic, why can't we make it ever-lasting?
Like the lifetime of the sun, it will leave no heart undone,

for there's enough for everyone.

Oh oh oh.
As around the sun the earth knows she's revolving
And the rosebuds know to bloom in early May Just as hate knows love's the cure
You can rest your mind assure
That I'll be loving you always

As now can't reveal the mystery of tomorrow
But in passing will grow older every day
Just as all is born is new
Do know what I say is true
That I'll be loving you always

Until the rainbow burns the stars out in the sky
ALWAYS
Until the ocean covers every mountain high
ALWAYS
Until the dolphin flies and parrots live at sea
Until we dream of life and life becomes a dream

Did you know that true love asks for nothing
Her acceptance is the way we pay
Did you know that life has given love a guarantee
To last through forever and another day

Just as time knew to move on since the beginning
And the seasons know exactly when to change
Just as kindness knows no shame
Know through all your joy and pain
That I'll be loving you always

As today I know I'm living but tomorrow
Could make me the past but that I mustn't fear
For I'll know deep in my mind
The love of me I've left behind Cause I'll be loving you always even know what they're dying for.

Through the ages all great men have taught
We can't trust you when you take a stand truth and happiness just with a gun and Bible can't be bought or sold.

Tell me why in your hand, and the cold expression on your face saying

"Give us what we want or we'll destroy!"

Agh,
Agh,
SATURN
S. Wonder / Mike Sembello

Packing my bags — going away
To a place where the air is clean
On Saturn
There's no sense to sit and watch people die
We don't fight our wars the way you do
We put back all the things we use
On Saturn
There's no sense to keep on doing such crimes

There's no principles in what you say
No direction in the things you do
For your world is soon to come to a close
Through the ages all great men have taught
Truth and happiness just can't be bought — or sold
Tell me why are you people so cold

I'm . . . . .
Going back to Saturn where the rings all glow
Rainbow, moonbeams and orange snow
On Saturn
People live to be two hundred and five
Going back to Saturn where the people smile
Don't need cars cause we've learned to fly
On Saturn
Just to live to us is our natural high

We have come here many times before
To find your strategy to peace is war
Killing helpless men, women and children
That don't even know what they're dying for
We can't trust you when you take a stand
With a gun and bible in your hand
And the cold expression on your face
Saying give us what we want or we'll destroy

I'm . . . . .
Going back to Saturn where the rings all glow
Rainbow, moonbeams and orange snow
On Saturn
People live to be two hundred and five
Going back to Saturn where the people smile
Don't need cars cause we've learned to fly
On Saturn
Just to live to us is our natural high

EBONY EYES
S. Wonder

She's a Miss Beautiful Supreme
A girl that others wish that they could be
If there's seven wonders of the world
Then I know she's gotta be number one
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes

She's the sunflower of nature's seeds
A girl that some men only find in their dreams
When she smiles it seems the stars all know
Cause one by one they start to light up the sky
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes

    a girl that can't be beat
    born and raised on ghetto streets
    a devastating beauty
    a pretty girl with ebony eyes

When she starts talking soft and sweet
Like birds of spring her words all seem to sing
With a rhythm that is made of love
And the happiness that she only brings
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes

    born and raised on ghetto streets
    a devastating beauty
    a pretty girl with ebony eyes

Yeah, yea yea
...... yeah
Pretty black beauty
Yeah, yea yeah
Yea, yea, yeah, yea, yeah
Yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, yeah

ALL DAY SUCKER
S. Wonder

Come on up you say
Cause you can feel your love comin' down
I find myself rushin' over to
Do something for your love

I knock on the door
You answer askin' what am I there for I say I thought you wanted me to
Do something for your love

I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something to get nothin'
I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something but to get none of your love

all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love

You call me up to say
You're sorry for what went down the other day
And could I come over today to
Do something for your love

One knock gets me in
But then you say 'how very nice it's been
That lets me know that I will once again
Get nothin' from your love

Coming to give something but to get none of your love
