

SCOOP

DEADLY TERROR DELAY

SHARON HANSON

TOUCHIT new powers to make a snip for the mill-tary to help police the millitarisation of the coast.
 terror threats like the deadly Lark Cane slope are still not operational one year after they were promised by Malcolm Turnbull.

The Daily Telegraph can reveal the day a foreign caused by legal army and control within the government. The Prime Minister first signed changes in May last year — then formally announced them two months later at a dramatic press conference where he was surrounded by special forces soldiers wearing gas masks. Yet, 10 months on, the measures are still not in place.

Full report page 2

SCOOP

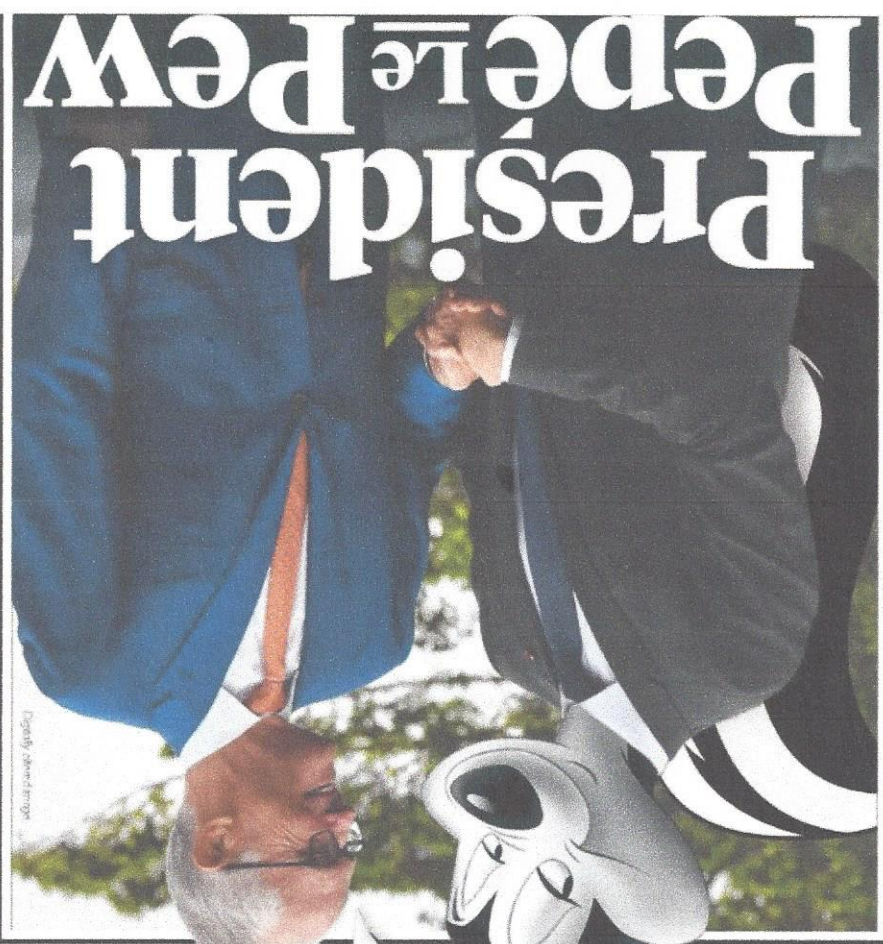

TRAIN WRECK GROWS

ANNA CALDWELL

STATE POLITICAL EDITOR

THE high rail construction company holding Sydney to reason is part of a century to from that business covered to stop work on a major road project in Queensland because of major safety concerns.

The Daily Telegraph can reveal the legislation government wants urgent talks

President
Pepe Le Pew

Digital: Johnstone