

A LA UNE

The Queen gives her annual speech

Last week, Queen Elizabeth II (2) delivered a speech, in London (UK). This was to present the country's plans for the coming months. This speech is always written by the Prime Minister.

DID YOU KNOW

In the United Kingdom, the Prime Minister and his government make the decisions, not the Queen. She is the Head of State but she is not elected by the people and has little power.

diadem - throne - glasses - cloak - glove - read

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

Firemen fought to put out a big wildfire in Los Angeles (United States), on October 10th. 31 homes were totally destroyed.