

THEY ARE NOT INCOMPETENT!!!

I have often heard that decide to live with people with disabilities, it is to give the energy necessary to two people to one incapable.

They say they only complain. They are too disabled to maintain their property. What will be attended from A to Z.

Yes, for some people it is. But we need to stop putting everyone in the same basket.

Yes they are able to do the cleaning, cooking, dressing, gardening, washing, ... and many other things that pictures do not always show.
