

Baby Moses Is Safe

By Jill Kemp

Illustrated by Richard Gunther

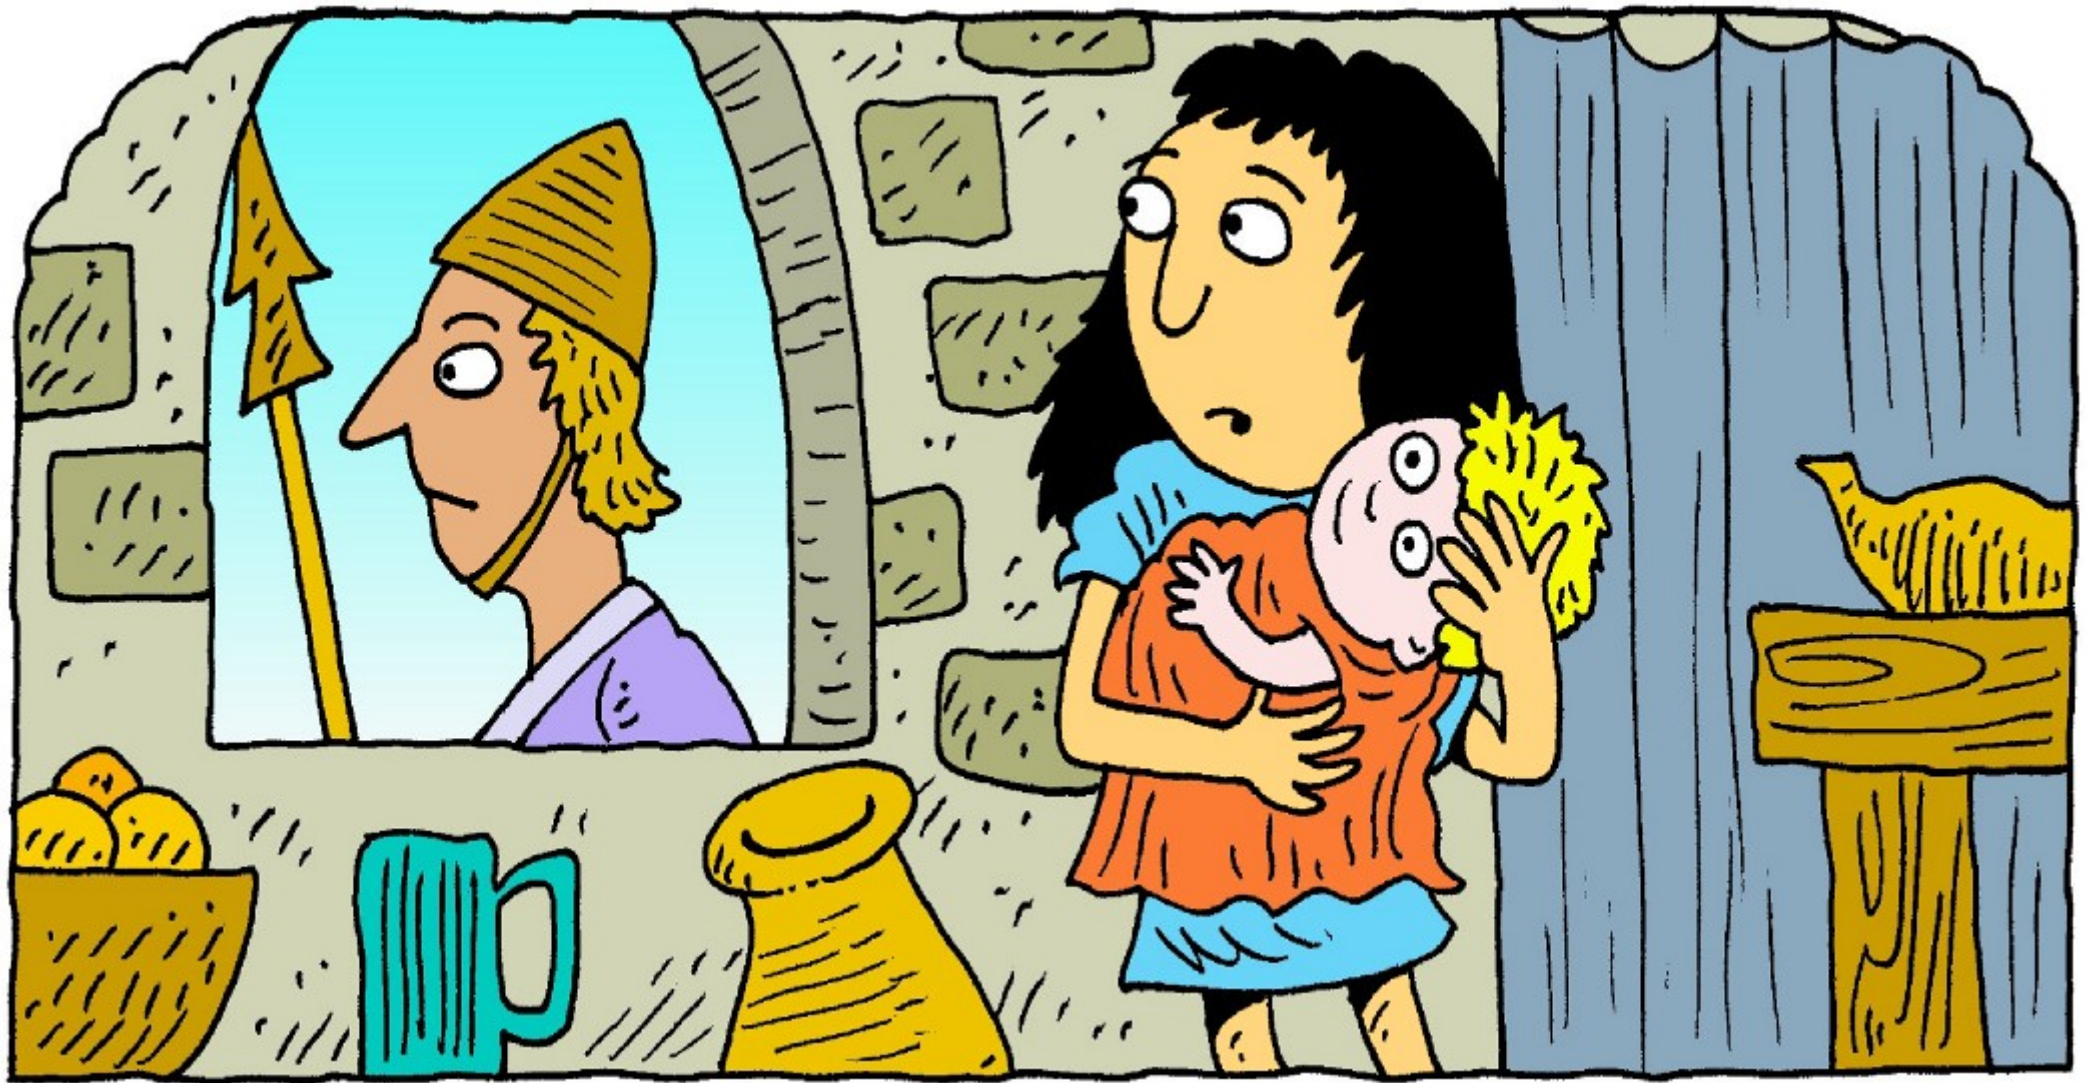

The children of Israel grew up to be big and strong.
They worked hard and got big muscles.

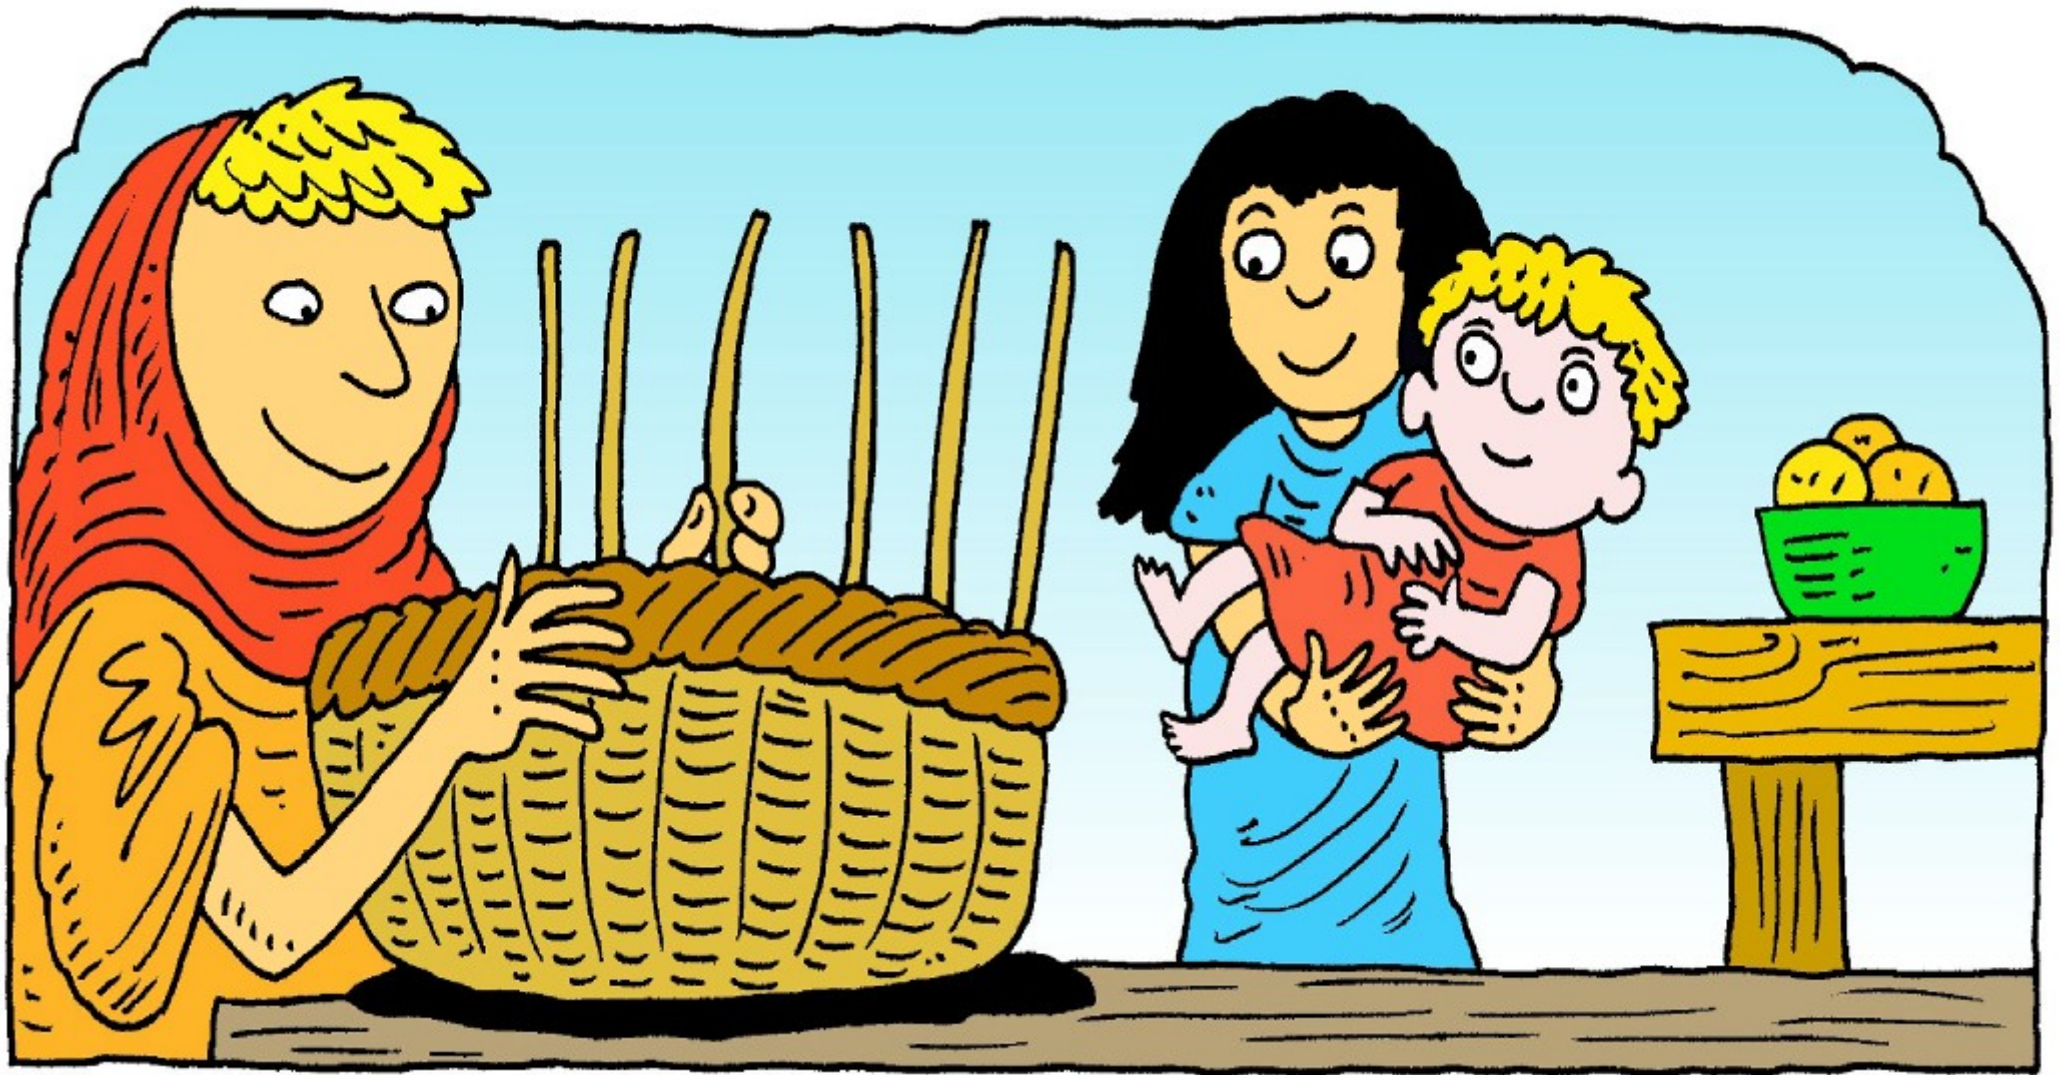

Soon they would be stronger than King Pharaoh!
“I will take away all the baby boys before they get big too,” he said.

Miriam had a beautiful baby brother.
She looked out of her window.
When the soldiers came the family hid the baby.
They prayed that God would keep their baby boy safe.

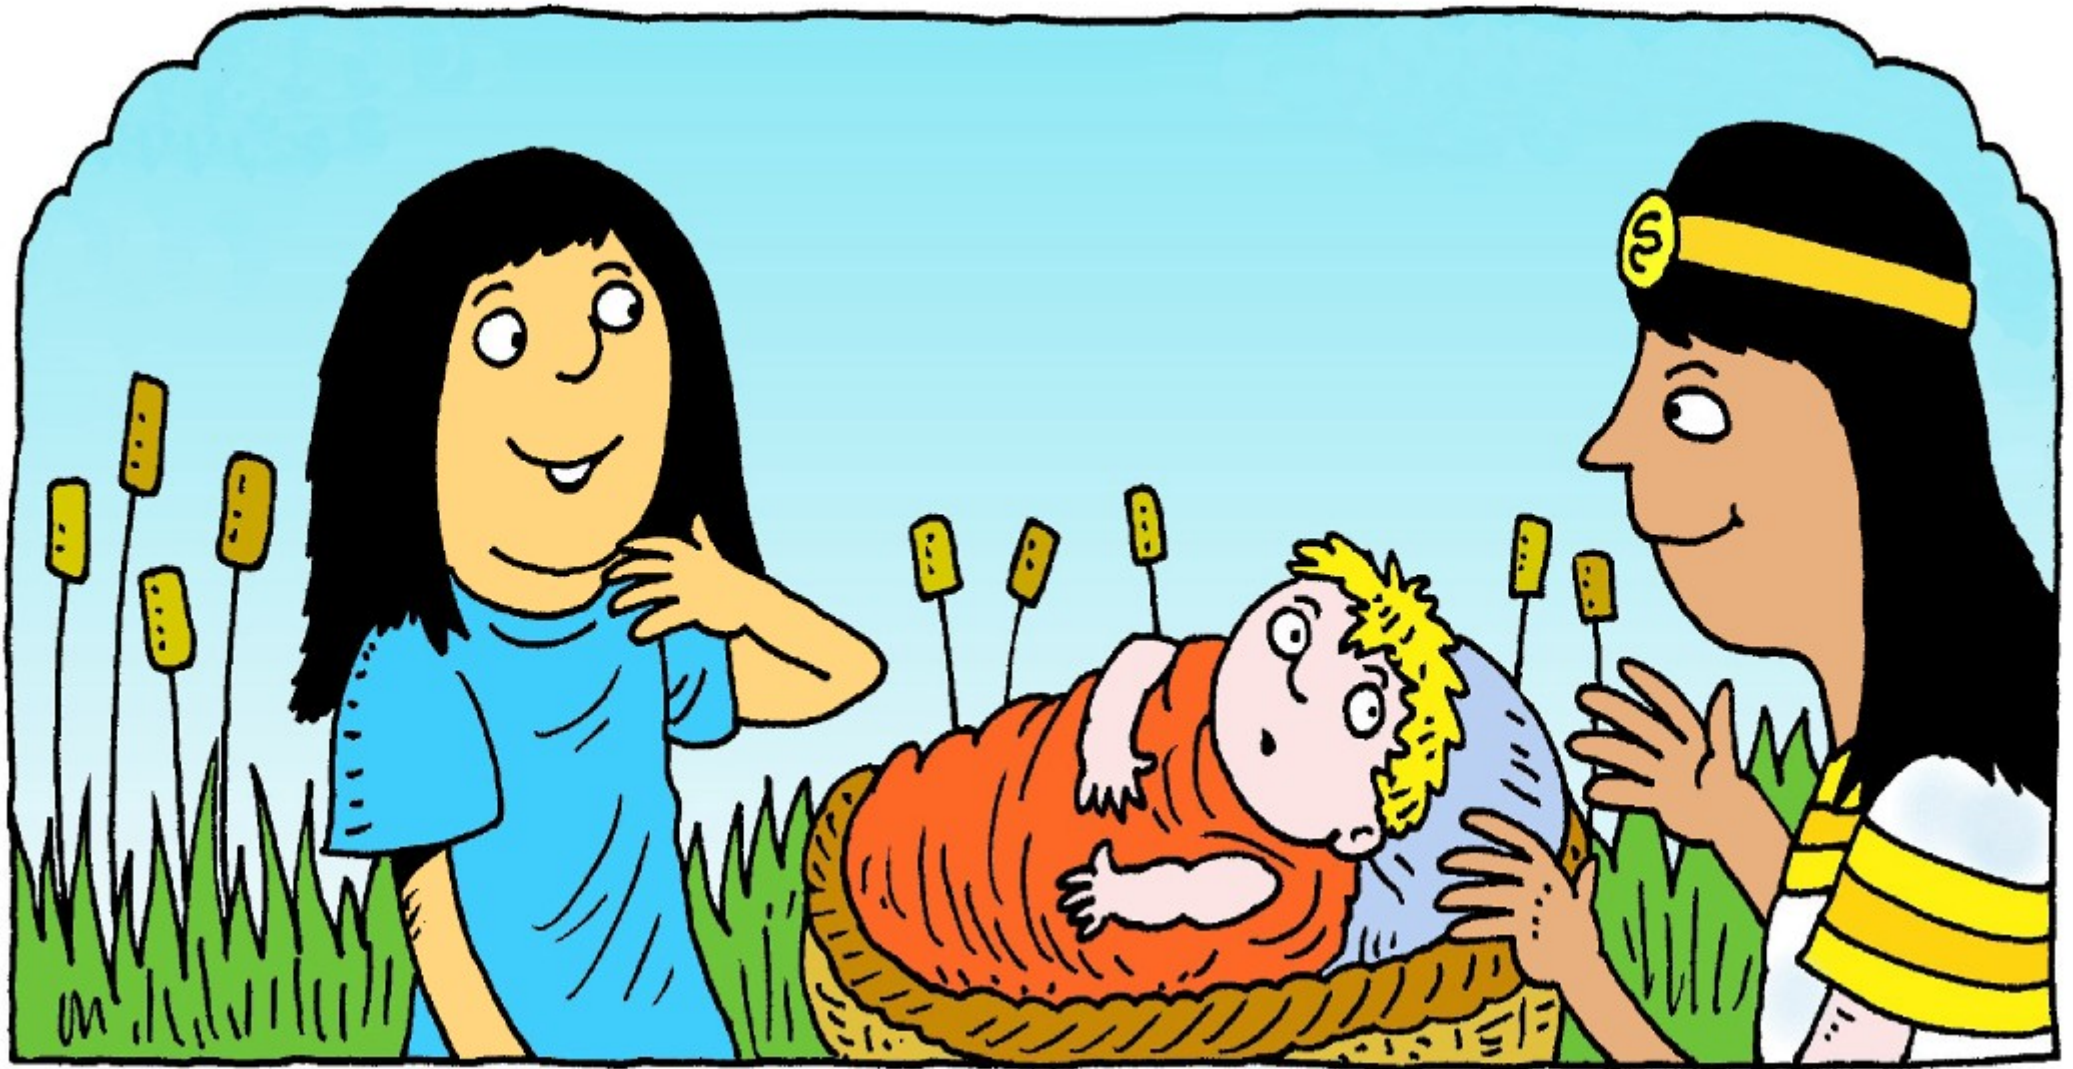

Soon their baby was too big to hide. “God please help us,” they prayed. Baby’s mother made a special little bed in a basket to float baby down the river Nile, to a safe place. “God will look after him,” she said.

She tucked him in his bed and he went fast asleep.
“God keep our baby safe,” she prayed.
Miriam, his sister, watched nearby.
Baby began to cry. “Ssh, little baby, someone is coming.”

Miriam saw a Princess come down to the river.
Princess looked at the baby and she loved him.
“I will call him Moses,” she said.
“But I will need someone to help me look after him.”

The Princess saw Miriam and sent her to find a kind lady.
Miriam ran home to get her mother.
“The Princess needs someone to look after the baby.
God kept baby Moses safe!” she said.

When he was bigger, Moses went to live with the Princess in King Pharaoh's Palace. Moses always loved God with all his heart and remembered that it was God who had kept him safe.