

les boucles

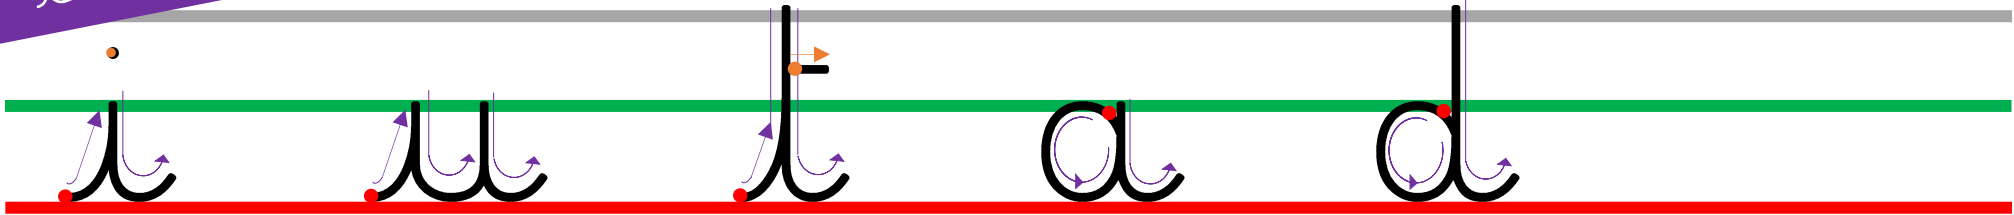

A row of six cursive letters: e, l, f, b, h, and k. Each letter is written on a set of four horizontal lines (black top, blue middle, green middle, red bottom). Small red dots indicate the starting point of a stroke, and purple arrows show the direction of the stroke. The letter 'f' has a long descender that goes below the red line.

les ronds

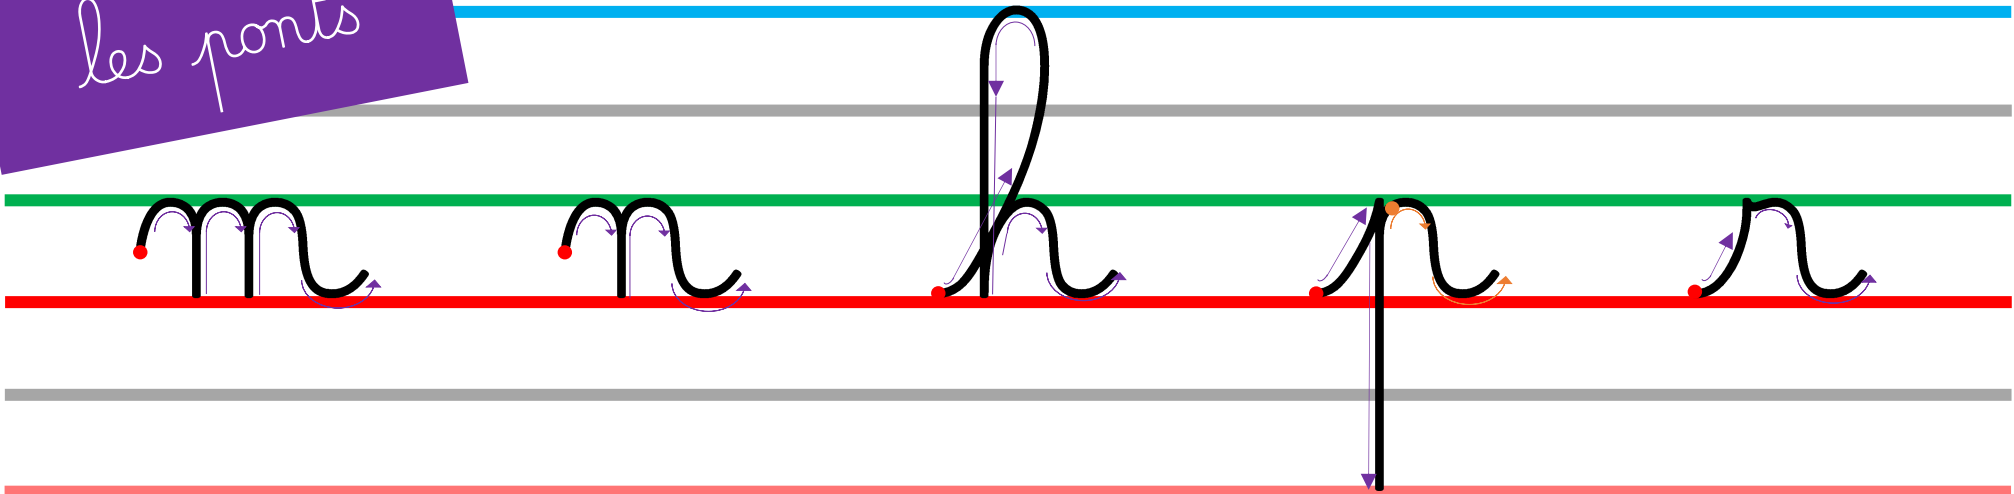

A row of six cursive letters: c, a, d, q, g, and o. Each letter is written on a set of four horizontal lines (black top, blue middle, green middle, red bottom). Small red dots indicate the starting point of a stroke, and purple arrows show the direction of the stroke. The letter 'q' has a vertical stem that goes down to the red line.
