A handwriting practice grid on blue-lined paper. The grid is divided into two main sections by a vertical black line. The left section contains three rows of letters: 'c', 'd', and 'u'. Each letter is shown in a different color (green for 'c', yellow for 'd', blue for 'u') and has a small black dot indicating the starting point of a stroke. Below each letter, a large black arrow indicates the direction of the stroke. For 'c', the arrow points to the right. For 'd', the arrow points downwards. For 'u', the arrow points downwards. The right section of the grid is empty, with the letters 'c', 'd', and 'u' written in the same colors and positions as in the left section, but without the starting dots or arrows. The grid consists of 10 horizontal lines and 10 vertical lines.
