

Structure :

to look + adjective = avoir l'air

adjective

Vocabulary :

Pour mémoriser le vocabulaire et les nouvelles structures, l'idéal est d'apprendre par cœur. Dans les descriptions ci-dessous, surlignez les verbes conjugués au présent progressif et la structure « to look + adjectif ». Vous pouvez écrire la traduction de quelques mots en français au crayon de papier mais vous effacerez dès que vous aurez appris ces nouveaux mots !

This man is a plumber. He has a red cap and red glasses. He is wearing a blue coat. He has a tool in his pocket. He is smiling.

He looks nice.

Sam is a young boy. He is wearing a red t-shirt. He has frizzy and black hair. He is playing video games.

This woman is a pizza delivery girl. She is wearing a black tee-shirt and a sleeveless jacket. She has purple hair. She has earrings and lots of piercings. She looks strange.

Lisa is a little girl. She has blond hair. She has two braids. She has pink cheeks. She is wearing a yellow tee-shirt with a cat. She is smiling. She looks very happy.