

Le présent simple p.152

1 p.20

He often signs autographs.

He often rehearses.

He is sometimes on the phone

He never eats in a fast food.

L'adverbe se place avant le verbe mais après l'auxiliaire être (BE).

2 p.20

a. Do you like social networks ?

b. Do you read magazines ?

c. How often do you read gossip ?

d. How often does your brother check his twitter account ?

Les modaux p.155-157

4 p.20

a. I can't read...

b. You must be 13...

c. He can sing...

d. You mustn't be late...

e. They can't buy...

Le prétérit p.153

1 p.21

He was born on June 13 in West Virginia, USA.

He studied mathematics, economics.

He went to Princeton.

He discovered algebraic geometry.

He received Nobel Prize in 1994.

2 p.21

a. What did he find ?

b. Who did she work with ?

c. Who were Nikola Tesla and Robert Edison.

d. Did he discover radioactivity ?

e. Was he English ? (tu peux utiliser n'importe quelle nationalité sauf American)

3 p.21

Two months ago, he made a research trip to Australia.

Last month / One month ago, he attended a conference in New York.

The day before yesterday / Two days ago, he met Mr Jackson, an American professor.

Today, he worked on a new equation.

Les pronoms personnels p.148

4 p.21

a. These scientists are amazing ! I want to meet them.

b. I can't believe it ! They've found the solution. I must congratulate them.

c. I never listen to her. She can't explain her theories.

d. Can you give us his name ? We'd like to contact him.

Le passif p.159

1 p.77

- a. Private Jones was rescued by British soldiers.
- b. The 39th Infantry Regiment was attacked by German soldiers on April 12th.
- c. War on Germany was declared by France and Britain on Sept 3rd 1939.
- d. London was bombed by the German Air Force in 1940-41.

2 p.77

- a. London was bombed intensively by the German planes in 1940.
- b. That period of bombings was called « the Blitz » by the British.
- c. The children were evacuated from London by the government.
- d. The children were taken to the country for their protection. (Tu ne sais pas à qui fait référence le THEY donc il ne faut pas mettre de complément d'agent)
- e. England was never invaded since William the Conqueror in 1066.
(Comme en français, il serait maladroit de dire : L'Angleterre n'a été envahie par personne. Il vaut mieux reformuler sans complément d'agent par : L'Angleterre n'a jamais été envahie.)