

I speak English

3rd lesson : Picture description using « there is/are »

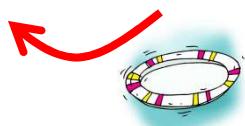

Vocabulary : It's breakfast time !

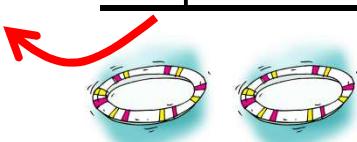

Structure :

il y a ...

There is a plate on the table.

There are 2 plates on the table.

There is a red bowl on the table.

There are glasses on the table.

There are slices of apple on a plate.

There is a guinea pig on the top of the cornflakes box.

Exercise :

Complete with « there is » or « there are » :

On the right, a bottle of orange juice.

..... six objects on the table.

..... milk in the bowl.

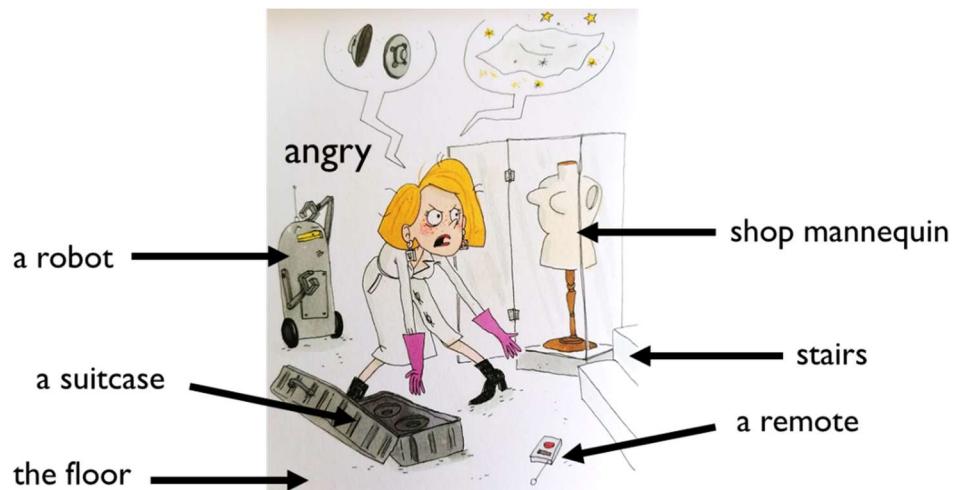

At the bottom of the picture, black glasses.

..... cornflakes in the red bowl.

..... a glass close to the bowl.

Vocabulary:

the front page = la une

Pour mémoriser le vocabulaire et les nouvelles structures, l'idéal est d'apprendre par cœur. Dans les descriptions ci-dessous, surlignez les verbes conjugués au présent progressif et la structure « to look + adjectif ». Vous pouvez écrire la traduction de quelques mots en français au crayon de papier mais vous effacerez dès que vous aurez appris ces nouveaux mots !

Pour écouter le texte lu :

In the middle of the picture, I can see Danny and Peanut the Guinea pig. Danny is wearing blue pyjamas. He has messy red hair.

Danny is reading the newspaper. At the bottom of the picture, I can see black glasses, a red bowl and a glass. Danny is having breakfast. He looks surprised. On the right of the picture, I can see a bottle of orange juice.

