CONSIGNE 1: Aide la fourmi à rapporter sa nourriture à la fourmilière.

A series of ten rows for a tracing activity. Each row consists of a dashed line starting from an illustration of an ant carrying a piece of green leaf on its back, extending across the page, and ending at an illustration of an ant carrying a piece of green leaf into a mound of earth (the ant nest). The dashed lines are intended for children to trace, helping them practice horizontal line writing.
