A large, black, cursive-style letter 'f' is drawn on a white background with four horizontal lines: a green top line, a brown middle line, a gray baseline, and a red bottom line. The letter 'f' starts at the top line, goes down past the middle line, loops around to the left, and then goes back up to cross the middle line and end with a small hook. A purple circle is placed on the brown middle line to the left of the letter.
