down. Tell me now don't it re- mind you on a blan- ket on the ground? Re-mem-ber back when love first found us, we'd go slip- pin' out of town. And we'd love be-neath the moon-light on a blan- ket on the ground. I'll get the blan- ket from the bed- room and we'll go walk- ing once again to the spot down by the riv- er, where our sweet love first began. Just be-cau- se we are mar- ried don't mean can't slip around. So let's walk out through the moon-light, and lay the blan- ket on the ground. ----- Oh, re-mem-ber how exci-ted we used to get when love was young. That old moon was our best bud- dy, we could-n't wait for night to come. Now you know you still ex- cite me, I know you love me like I am. Just once more I wish you'll love me on a blan-ket on the ground. I'll get the blan-ket from the bed- room and we'll go walk-ing once a-gain to the spot down by the riv- er, where our sweet love first be-gan. Just be- cau-se we are mar- ried don't mean can't slip a- round. So let's walk out through the moon-light, and lay the blan-ket on the ground. Mmh, mh, mh, mh, mh,
