Don't

Keith Ross

Don't let this old world get you down, Just let a lov-ing smile re-place a frown. With a crown of life and light, you are pre-cious in God's sight. So don't let this old world get you down. This means you don't go wor-ry-ing what to do. Just trust in God and He'll take care of you. God holds us in His hands and for each He has a plan, and He won't let you down like o-thers do. Don't do things in your own strength, For the e - vil one will go to an - y length, To stop you or sup-press you when the Fa - ther wants to bless you. So don't do things in your own strength. This means you

I Will Praise You In The Morning

David Churchyard

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. Chord symbols are placed above the staff lines. The lyrics are: "I will praise You in the morn - ing when the sun is just a - ris - ing. I'll praise You in the eve - ning as it sets on the hor - i - zon, And in all the in be - tween times too, I will ne - ver stop prais - ing You. J - E - S - U - S is best. Yeah!
