Songs In The Key Of Life
Stevie Wonder

Those who have listened closely to Stevie Wonder's very first hit remember a question that has just now been fully answered:

"What key, what key?" asked the frantic bandleader's voice on the opening to "Fingertips, Part II."

"The key of life!" is the reply some fifteen years later, the eternal message of Stevie Wonder's sixteenth and finest LP "Songs In The Key Of Life."

Those who have a head for higher mathematics will also recall that Stevie's last two albums — released less than a year apart — each won five Grammy Awards and sold over one million copies. Simple arithmetic leads one to the possibility that "Songs In The Key Of Life" — over two years in the making, consisting of two solid LPs plus an EP bonus — could win an unprecedented 10 Grammy Awards and sell well over two million copies.

Those who number themselves, without question, among the ranks of tried and true Stevie Wonder fans — and that includes just about everybody these days — will know, without asking, that "Songs In The Key Of Life" adds up to the most massive and awesome work of pop music in the 1970's.

There are 21 tunes in all. Some are out-and-out love and/or lust songs, the kind fans of "You Are The Sunshine Of My Life" and "Boogie On Reggae Woman" will frenzy for. Others are songs with social significance a la "You Haven't Done Nothing" and "Living For The City." Still others like earlier hits "Higher Ground" and "Heaven Help Us All" bear strong religious overtones. But along with the universal appeal of all these facets of Wonder the ace songwriter, "Songs In The Key Of Life" also unveils tunes that are much more personal than his past work — songs that give us our clearest insights yet into the mind of Stevie Wonder the human being.

The Wonder of Religious Experience opens the album with Stevie playing the radio preacherman, asking us to send our donations to Box L-O-V-E. It's followed by a sensuous rocker urging us to "Have A Talk With God" when things get tough. And on "Saturn" (one of the songs contained on the bonus EP), Stevie creates a stunning science fiction paradise for all mankind, where the religion of the universe is peace and love.

The Wonder of Social Consciousness is also introduced on the very first side of the superalbum. "Village Ghetto Land" is a keen observation of a poverty situation. On the brighter side, "Sir Duke" is a happy Dixie-out-landish celebration of the black pioneers in American music: Basie, Ellington, Armstrong and Fitzgerald. "Pastime Paradise" deals in the error of living in the past and the benefits of looking towards a more promising future. And "Black Man" is probably the first history lesson ever set to a disco beat — complete with a funky pop quiz at the close of class. Black Studies programs all over the nation will never be quite the same!

"Ngiculela/Es Una Historia/I Am Singing" captures the interaction of African, Latin and American sounds and rhythms through consecutive Zulu, Spanish and English translations of the identical musical idea. The result is pure musical pleasure.

The Wonder of Pure Love doesn't come on through until the opening of Side Two. But then the romance flows like there's no stopping it. And with Wonder, there isn't!

"Knocks Me Off My Feet" is a rather energetic concept set against a relatively serene musical theme. But the contrast is indeed a knock-out. In "Summer Soft," love and nature intertwine as the heart changes with the seasons. "Ordinary Pain" is a song of break-up, a two-part male/female blues that brings the form to new heights of passion and power.

"If It's Magic" is the album's sole harmonica/vocal solo — and an even more hypnotic piece because of its unique position. "As" blends the eternity of "always" and the finality of "until" into one supreme statement of devotion everlasting. Meanwhile,

"Another Star" looks at fidelity when the two lovers involved are not so ideally matched in their sense of commitment.

"Ebony Eyes" is delivered in the style of a beauty pageant theme songs, celebrating the beauty of womanhood in its purest form. But "All Day Sucker" details the plight of manhood when she takes herself too seriously and doesn't let you get too close.

We get really close to The Wonder of Stevie Himself in five songs that round out this masterful collection of music.

The first of these personal songs in an instrumental — a form Stevie hasn't made much use of since his "Fingertips" days. "Contusion" brings us back to that fateful day in 1973 when an August car crash near Durham, North Carolina, almost took Stevie's life. It takes us all there, closer than mere words ever could.

"I Wish" describes Stevie's bad boy youth in a very brilliant first person. "Isn't She Lovely?" is a father beaming with pride over his first daughter, Aisha Zakiya (meaning "life and intelligence") while "Joy Inside My Tears" concerns the woman who, for Stevie, makes parental joy possible — his wife Yolanda.

"Easy Goin' Evening (My Mama's Call)" is the works! closing theme, also an instrumental, which allows us to glimpse the relationship between a younger Wonder and his mother. Stevie's ability to speak as clearly with melody as with words is the key to the song's effectiveness.

The overall key to appreciating the total scope of Wonder's latest musical triumph is indeed "life." It's the one key that unlocks all doors. With awareness and faith, with love and insight. Through the magic of the key of life, all problems open up to their ideal solutions.

Happily, the key of life is one we all can play and sing in. At least with Stevie Wonder's "Songs In The Key Of Life" there to show us how.

I've never considered myself an orator nor a politician, only a person who is fortunate enough, thanks to all of you, to become an artist given a chance to express the way he feels and hopefully the feelings of many other people. It is to me a fact that Stevie Wonder is that temporary someone of myself even though we have come to know each other very well and realized because of who he is, the many doors that have been opened may have been closed to myself, Stevland Morris. It is important that you do note permanently in your mind that I do take not a second for granted. For I do believe it is that Stevie Wonder is the necessary vehicle on which Stevland Morris must be carried on his mission to spread love mentalism. In every album that I have and shall do, it is not my goal for that to be better than that and the next to succeed the others, but only that I do and give the best I can at the time of my doing and giving and that only happens because of the dis- or satisfaction that made me want to be a better someone.

"Songs In The Key Of Life" is only a conglomerate of thoughts in my subconscious that my Maker decided to give me the strength, the love + love - hate = love energy making it possible for me to bring to my conscious an idea. An idea to me is a formed thought in the subconscious, the unknown and sometimes sought for impossibles, but when believed strong enough, can become a reality. So let it be that I shall live the idea of the song and use its words as my sight into the unknown, but believe positive tomorrow and I shall so when in evil darkness smile up at the sun and it shall to me as if I were a pyramid give me the key in which I am to sing, and if it is a key that you too feel, may you join and sing with me. My mind's heart must be polygamous and my spirit is married to many and my love belongs to all.

*Music is a world within itself
With a language we all understand
With an equal opportunity
For all to sing, dance and clap their hands
But just because a record has a groove
Don't make it in the groove
But you can tell right away at letter A
When the people start to move*

*They can feel it all over
They can feel it all over people
They can feel it all over

*Music knows it is and always will Be one of the things that life just won't quit
But here are some of music's pioneers
That time will not allow us to forget
For there's Basie, Miller, Sachimo
And the king of all, Sir Duke
And with a voice like Ella's ringing out There's no way the band can lose*

The first system of the piano introduction features a treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The bass clef part begins with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The melody in the treble clef starts with a whole rest, followed by a series of eighth notes.

The second system continues the piano introduction. The treble clef part has a more active melody with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef part maintains the eighth-note accompaniment.

The third system of the piano introduction shows the treble clef part moving into a series of chords, primarily triads and dyads, while the bass clef part continues its accompaniment.

ORDINARY PAIN

S. Wonder

When by the phone
In vain you sit
You very soon in your mind realize that it's not just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you by chance
Go knock on her door
Walkin' away you're convinced that it's much more Than just an ordinary pain in your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain in your heart

When you catch up
But she says goodbye
Hold back your tears and before you start to cry
Say you feel unnecessary pain in your heart

Tell her you're glad It's over in fact
Can she take with her the pain she brought you back
Takin' that ordinary pain from your heart
It's more than just
An ordinary pain from your heart

Don't fool yourself
But tell no one else
That it's more than just
An ordinary pain
In your heart
In your heart
In your heart

PART II

You're just a masochistic fool
Because you knew my love was cruel
You never listened when they said
Don't let that girl go to your head
But like a play boy you said no
or - di - nary pain
This little girl's mind you will blow
or - di - nary pain
But then I blew you out the box
or - di - nary pain
When I put my stuff on key and lock
or - di - nary pain
It makes me feel kind of sick
or - di - nary pain
To know love put you in a trick

I knew our love would have to end
or - di - nary pain
The day I made it with your friend
or - di - nary pain
Giving your love to one unreal
or - di - nary pain
Like a big fool I know you feel
or - di - nary pain

But in this lovie-dovie game
or - di - nary pain
With all its joy there must be pain
or - di - nary pain
But now the time has surely come
or - di - nary pain
This game don't seem like so much fun
or - di - nary pain
You're cryin' big crocodile tears
or - di - nary pain
Don't match the ones I've cried for years
or - di - nary pain
When I was home waiting for you
or - di - nary pain
You were out somewhere doing the do
or - di - nary pain
You know I'd really like to stay
or - di - nary pain
But like you did I've got to play
or - di - nary pain
You're dumb to think I'd let you be
or - di - nary pain
Scott free without some pain from me
or - di - nary pain
I heard your song and took a chance
or - di - nary pain
But to your music I can't dance
or - di - nary pain
Go tell your story 'sob-sad'
or - di - nary pain
About you blowin' what you had

Isn't she precious
Less than one minute old
I never thought through love we'd be Making one as lovely as she
But isn't she lovely made from love

Isn't she pretty
Truly the angel's best
Boy, I'm so happy
We have been heaven blessed
I can't believe what God has done
Through us He's given life to one
But isn't she lovely made from love

Isn't she lovely

*I've always come to the conclusion that 'but' is the way
Of asking for permission to lay something heavy on one's head
So I have tried to not be the one who'll fall into that line
But what I feel inside I think you should know*

*And baby that's you – you – you
Made life's his - to - ry
Cause you've brought some joy inside my tears
And you have done what no one thought could be You've brought some joy inside my tears*

*I've always felt that tomorrow is for those who are too much afraid
To go past yesterday and start living for today
I feel that lasting moments are coming far and few between
So I should tell you of the happiness that you bring*

*Baby, baby it's you – you – you
Made life's his - to - ry
Oh baby, you've brought some joy inside my tears Baby you have done what no one thought could be

After last verse, to next bar

(Hear me out . . .)

Now I know the birthday of a nation
Is a time when a country celebrates
But as your hand touches your heart
Remember we all played a part in America
To help that banner wave

First clock to be made
In America was created
By a black man (Benjamin Banneker)

Scout who used no chart
Helped lead Lewis and Clark
Was a red woman (Sacajawea)

Use of martial arts
In our country got its start
By a yellow man

And the leader with a pen
Signed his name to free all men
Was a white man (Abraham Lincoln)

We pledge allegiance
All our lives
To the magic colors
Red, blue and white
But we all must be given
The liberty that we defend
For with justice not for all men
History will repeat again
It's time we learned
This world was made for all men

This world was made for all men
This world was made for all men
This world was made for all men
God saved His world for all men
All people
All babies
All children
All colors
All races
This world's for you
And me
This world
My world
Your world
Everybody's world
This world
Their world
Our world
This world was made for all men

Who was the founder of blood plasma and the director of the Red Cross blood bank?
Dr. Charles Drew - a black man

Who was the first American heroine who aided the Lewis and Clark expedition?
Sacajawea - a red woman

Who was the famous educator and semanticist who made outstanding contributions to education in America?
Hayakawa - a yellow man

Who invented the world's first stop light and the gas mask?
Garrett Morgan - a black man

Who was the American surgeon who was one of the founders of neurosurgery?
Harvey Williams Cushing - a white man

Who was the man who helped design the nation's capitol, made the first clock to give time in America and wrote the first almanac?
Benjamin Bannekar - a black man

Who was the legendary hero who helped establish the League of Iroquis?
Hiawatha - a red man

Who was the leader of the first microbiotic centers in America?
Misho Kushi - a yellow man

Who was the founder of the city of Chicago in 1772?

I AM SINGING

*There're songs to make you smile
There're songs to make you sad
But with a happy song to sing
It never seems as bad
To me came this melody
So I've tried to put in words how I feel Tomorrow will be for you and me*

*I am singing of tomorrow
I am singing of love
I am singing someday love will reign
Throughout this world of ours
I am singing of love from my heart*

*Let's all sing someday sweet love will reign
Throughout this world of ours
Let's start singing
Of love from our hearts
Let's start singing

IF IT'S MAGIC

S. Wonder

*If it's magic...
Then why can't it be everlasting
Like the sun that always shines
Like the poets endless rhyme
Like the galaxies in time*

*If it's pleasing...
Then why can't it be never leaving
Like the day that never fails
Like on seashores there are shells Like the time that always tells*

*It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst*

*So...
If it's special
Then with it why aren't we as careful
As making sure we dress in style
Posing pictures with a smile
Keeping danger from a child*

*It holds the key to every heart
Throughout the universe
It fills you up without a bite
And quenches every thirst*

*So.....
If it's magic
Why can't we make it everlasting
Like the lifetime of the sun
It will leave no heart undone
For there's enough for everyone*

SATURN

S. Wonder / Mike Sembello

*Packing my bags – going away
To a place where the air is clean
On Saturn
There's no sense to sit and watch people die
We don't fight our wars the way you do
We put back all the things we use
On Saturn
There's no sense to keep on doing such crimes*

*There's no principles in what you say
No direction in the things you do
For your world is soon to come to a close
Through the ages all great men have taught
Truth and happiness just can't be bought – or sold Tell me why are you people so cold*

*I'm
Going back to Saturn where the rings all glow
Rainbow, moonbeams and orange snow
On Saturn
People live to be two hundred and five
Going back to Saturn where the people smile
Don't need cars cause we've learned to fly
Just to live to us is our natural high*

*We have come here many times before
To find your strategy to peace is war
Killing helpless men, women and children
That don't even know what they're dying for We can't trust you when you take a stand
With a gun and bible in your hand
And the cold expression on your face Saying give us what we want or we'll destroy*

*I'm
Going back to Saturn where the rings all glow
Rainbow, moonbeams and orange snow
On Saturn
People live to be two hundred and five
Going back to Saturn where the people smile
Don't need cars cause we've learned to fly
Just to live to us is our natural high*

EBONY EYES

S. Wonder

*She's a Miss Beautiful Supreme A girl that others wish that they could be
If there's seven wonders of the world
Then I know she's gotta be number one
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes*

*She's the sunflower of nature's seeds
A girl that some men only find in their dreams
When she smiles it seems the stars all know
Cause one by one they start to light up the sky
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes*

*a girl that can't be beat born and raised on ghetto streets
a devastating beauty
a pretty girl with ebony eyes*

*When she starts talking soft and sweet
Like birds of spring her words all seem to sing
With a rhythm that is made of love
And the happiness that she only brings
She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony eyes*

born and raised on ghetto streets
a devastating beauty
a pretty girl with ebony eyes*

*Yeah, yea yea
..... yeah
Pretty black beauty
Yeah, yea yeah
Yea, yea, yeah, yea, yea, yeah
Yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, yea, yeah*

*She's a girl that can't be beat
Born and raised on ghetto street
She's a devastating beauty
A pretty girl with ebony ey---es
Ebony ey---es
Ebony ey---es
Ebony ey---es
Ebony eyes*

ALL DAY SUCKER

S. Wonder

*Come on up you say
Cause you can feel your love comin' down
I find myself rushin' over to
Do something for your love*

*I knock on the door
You answer askin' what am I there for I say I thought you wanted me to
Do something for your love*

*I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something to get nothin'
I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something but to get none of your love*

*all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love
all day sucker for your love
all day sucka-ca for your love*

*You call me up to say
You're sorry for what went down the other day
And could I come over today to
Do something for your love*

*One knock gets me in But then you say 'how very nice it's been
That lets me know that I will once again
Get nothin' from your love*

*I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something to get nothin'
I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something but to get none of your love*

all day sucka-ca for your love*

*You drop by to say
You're sorry for what went down the other day
And if I had some time later in the day to
Do something for your love*

*Anyone else would say
'No that's okay'
But maybe by now she'll see things my way
And ask me to stay to Do something for her love*

*I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something to get nothin'
I'm an all day sucker
Coming to give something but to get none of your love*
