A Day in My Life: AUSTRALIA

What's it like living in Australia? Read about a typical day in a boy's life to find out.

G'day! My name's Rob Lynes. I'm 11 years old and I'm from Australia.

07:00: I get up and have breakfast with my mum. We live in a small house in Sydney near the zoo. My mum is a single parent so there are only the two of us.

08:00: I go to school. My mum – Lizzie – takes me. Then she goes to work. She works in a restaurant. It's a Spanish restaurant, but she doesn't cook the food there. She hates cooking.

16:00: School finishes, but I don't go home. I walk to my grandparents' house. They live in the same road as us. I stay with them a lot because my mum works late. My granny is from Italy and she can cook great Italian food. My favourite food is my granny's special pasta.

20:00: I finish my homework and then I talk to my dad on the computer. His name's Jim. He lives in Darwin and I only see him during the holidays because it's more than 3,000 km away. I love going to Darwin. It's in the north of Australia and it's a great place.
