【摘要】 20世纪60年代尤其是冷战结束以来，宗教在全世界范围迅速增长，各种跨国宗教运动和现象不断涌现，其中国际传教运动的突飞猛进尤为引人注目，这不仅在很大程度上改变了世界宗教布局，而且对人们关于传教运动的传统看法和理论范式形成了具有颠覆性的挑战。本文主要针对当前国际传教运动的发展趋势和国内学界对传教运动尤其是基督教传教运动研究的现状，提出“国际视野，当代关怀”以及实现“四个跨越”的研究设想，以期对全球宗教复兴作更加全面的学术回应。

Abstract : The large-scale religious resurgence since the 1960s has brought about all kinds of transnational religious phenomena and movements, and one of the most remarkable movements is the transnational missionary activities of various religions. The fast and robust growth of the contemporary missionary movements does not only facilitate the great redistribution of religions in the world, but also pose a serious challenge to our traditional views and theories regarding the foreign missions. Based on the new development of contemporary missionary movements and also the missiological studies in China, this paper attempts to propose a research scheme of a series of bridgings (such as bridging the gap between the old missiology and new missiology) to further our understanding of the global religious revivals in general and the contemporary missionary movements in particular.
