

E Definitions

Match the following cinema-related words to their definitions in the table below.

blockbuster – anticlimax – antagonist – critic – climax – antihero – stock character

Definition	Word
The unsatisfying and disappointing outcome of a film
A clichéd type of character, lacking psychological depth, who may feature in a lot of different movies
The principal protagonist of a film who lacks the qualities of a typical archetypal hero
An impactful film that is a huge financial success
A professional film reviewer
The most intense decisive moment in a series of events
The villain who is in conflict with the film's hero

F Emotions and feelings

Throughout the chapter you have come across sentences which express feelings:

1. He watched Star Wars excitedly.
2. I've just seen The Lord of the Rings. The special effects are absolutely amazing and sometimes scary.
3. It's one of the most delightful and heartwarming adaptations.
4. The movie is painfully long. The storyline bores you.
5. Most critics who reviewed Bride and Prejudice at the time condemned the script.

a. Highlight the words that express feelings and write them down in the table below according to what type of feeling they convey and their part of speech.

	surprise	enjoyment	annoyance/ dissatisfaction	fear
adjective
adverb
verb

b. Complete the table above with words taken from the following list.

puzzled – terrified – elated – bore – exasperated – panicky – thrilled – indignant – outraged – amazed – speechless – excitedly – enjoy – resentfully – frustrate – frighteningly

E Definitions

Match the following cinema-related words to their definitions in the table below.

blockbuster – anticlimax – antagonist – critic – climax – antihero – stock character

Definition	Word
The unsatisfying and disappointing outcome of a film
A clichéd type of character, lacking psychological depth, who may feature in a lot of different movies
The principal protagonist of a film who lacks the qualities of a typical archetypal hero
An impactful film that is a huge financial success
A professional film reviewer
The most intense decisive moment in a series of events
The villain who is in conflict with the film's hero

F Emotions and feelings

Throughout the chapter you have come across sentences which express feelings:

1. He watched Star Wars excitedly.
2. I've just seen The Lord of the Rings. The special effects are absolutely amazing and sometimes scary.
3. It's one of the most delightful and heartwarming adaptations.
4. The movie is painfully long. The storyline bores you.
5. Most critics who reviewed Bride and Prejudice at the time condemned the script.

a. Highlight the words that express feelings and write them down in the table below according to what type of feeling they convey and their part of speech.

	surprise	enjoyment	annoyance/ dissatisfaction	fear
adjective
adverb
verb

b. Complete the table above with words taken from the following list.

puzzled – terrified – elated – bore – exasperated – panicky – thrilled – indignant – outraged – amazed – speechless – excitedly – enjoy – resentfully – frustrate – frighteningly