Introduction

To the students of the 8th year Basic Education.

“Let’s Discover More English” is the title of your English book for this year. In fact, there are two books : The Student’s Book and the Activity Book.

The Student’s Book has five modules and each module contains five lessons. The module map which is at the beginning of each module, highlights the topics discussed in each lesson, the skills and strategies to be developed, the grammar structures and the communicative functions to be learned, the vocabulary to be discovered as well as the project activities to be carried out. At the end of the module, there is a checklist of the targeted abilities for you to evaluate your own learning.

The Activity Book provides you with a lesson-by-lesson set of activities that help you discover and practise the targeted skills and strategies and the grammatical and lexical structures you will need to communicate efficiently. You may use your Activity Book to write the answers to the various activities. However, you must not write anything on your Student’s Book. At the end of each module, there is a mock test to help you assess your own learning.

We sincerely hope that you will find the materials interesting and the learning situations challenging and motivating. We hope that your learning of English will prove to be an exciting experience.

The authors.

Activity 1

Step 1

Reading Comprehension

a/ You have 10 seconds to find out :

1. The name of the person who wrote the letter.
2. The name of the person who received the letter.

The name of the person who writes the letter is at the bottom
The name of the person who receives the letter is at the beginning.

4, Dunbarten Terrace
London
August 15, 2006

Dear Imene,
Hi ! How are you ?

My family and I are back in London now. We really enjoyed the time we spent in Jerba. The island was very peaceful and quiet and the people very friendly and helpful. We all want to thank you for the good time we spent with you and your family.

Mum and Dad went back to work this morning but Christine and I are still on holidays. School usually begins in September. So, we still have a couple of weeks to relax. Dad got up early today to work in the bakery and Mum went down to the shop to sell fresh bread and cakes. Dad's bakery is next to Mum's shop. When I finish writing this letter, I'll go to the kitchen and wash the dishes. Christine is making the beds now and then she'll go downstairs and help Mum. In the afternoon, we'll be free to do what we want.

When we were in Jerba, you said that you wanted to visit London some time. Last night, I said to Mum and Dad «Why don't we invite Imene to spend a few days with us ? ». «Good idea », they said. Can you come soon ? Please try to come. We'll be very happy to see you again and I promise you won't regret it.

I hope you'll accept our invitation. I expect to hear from you soon.

Your Friend,
Chris

Step 2

Formal and informal letters

REMEMBER

- A letter you write to a friend or a member of your family is called an informal letter.
- An official letter is a formal letter.

These two types are different in their format (layout) and in the kind of language (register) the writers use in them.

Step 3

The simple future tense.

To talk about future events, we use :
Will ('ll) + verb (without to)

Affirmative form	Subject + will ('ll) + verb (without to)
Negative form	Subject + will not (won't) + verb (without to)
Interrogative form	Will + subject + verb (without to) ? Wh / word + will + subject + verb (without to) ?

Examples :

a/ - Will you go to school tomorrow ?

- Yes, I will.

- No, I won't.

b/ - When will you go to the dentist ?

- Tomorrow at 11 a.m.

LET'S COMMUNICATE

In lesson 5, you will write an informal letter.
Remember the characteristics of this letter.

Can she go to London ?

School subjects

1

In English schools, Math, English, Science and physical education are compulsory subjects. This means that all the students must study them. Besides, each student must choose a number of optional subjects (history, geography, arts etc.)

Extra-curricular Activities

There is a strong tradition of extra-curricular activities in English schools. Teachers stay after school to help organise sports, drama, music and other activities. English students often perform the plays they study to the rest of the school. Music is also important. Many schools have their own orchestra.

Sports and Sports Day

Games are usually compulsory in English schools. There are often matches between different schools or different classes. Popular sports are football, rugby, basketball, hockey and tennis.

On sports day, parents come to watch their children in different competitions: the high jump, the long jump, etc.

Lunch in or outside School

4

Schools in England have a reputation for serving chips and boiled vegetables. Today, in many schools fast food and snacks are replacing traditional school dinners. Schools have a dining hall. Many teenagers prefer to bring a cold lunch or "packed lunch".

During the lunch break, they eat their lunch in the dining hall or outside when the weather is fine.

Step 2

Language Study.

a- Find the stressed syllable in the following words.

reputation / presentation / competition / information.

REMEMBER

- Notice that words ending in __tion have the main stress on the last but one syllable.
- Do you know other words that end in __tion? What are they? Practise saying them.

b- What is the stressed syllable in the following words ?

optional physical

REMEMBER

- It is the third syllable from the end.
Find other words ending in __al and practise them.

And so they did. The question they posted was: «Do you like school?»

Here are some of the e-mails they received, read them.

I know it's not fun to wake up at 7 am every day and work the whole day, but it is very important for our future. My favourite subjects at school are English and Maths.

Yes and no !

Yes, because I want to learn so that I can have a good job in the future. I also like sports.

No, because school's boring and tiring (sometimes) !

Thibault, age 13,

2

I like to learn at school

Hello Imene. I live in Greece, so we finish school at 3 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday, and at 2.30 pm on other days. I don't know when you finish school in your country, but I find it sometimes very tiring.

Generally I like school because I talk with my friends, although I don't have many. Also it's interesting. We learn all kinds of things to help us find a job in the future. At our school we play basketball, volleyball and football but I am not good at these sports. I prefer ballet.

LIONEL RICHIE LYRICS

"Say You, Say Me"

[Chorus :]

Say you, say me

Say it for always, that's the way it should be

Say you, say me

Say it together, naturally

I had a dream I had an awesome dream
People in the park playing games in the dark
And what they played was a masquerade
And from behind of walls of doubt a voice was crying out

[Chorus]

As we go down life's lonesome highway
Seems the hardest thing to do is to find a friend or two

A helping hand - some one who understands
That when you feel you've lost your way
You've got some one there to say I'll show you

[Chorus]

So you think you know the answers - oh no
'cause the whole world has got you dancing

That's right - I'm telling you

It's time to start believing - oh yes
Believing who you are - you are a shining star

[Chorus]

Step 3

Would you like to dance ?

- My name is John
- ' Pleased to meet you' said Imene.
- 'Would you like to dance ?' asked John.
- 'I'd love to' , answered Imene. 'Let's dance.'

After dancing together, John and Imene sat at a table near the window, sipping their drinks and chatting. Their conversation went like this :

John : You dance really well.

Imene : Thank you John. You too are good at dancing.

John : Thanks. Do all Tunisian teenagers dance like you ?

Imene : The majority love dancing. Some are too shy.
They feel embarrassed to dance.

John : I think teenagers are the same everywhere.

Imene : Do you learn to dance at school ?

John : That's correct. I love dancing and take dancing classes at my school. My choreography teacher is very nice. At the end of every school year, my friends and I put on a nice show. Do you think it's bad for boys to dance ?

Imene : Not really. Boys can enjoy dancing the same way girls do.

A friend in need is a friend indeed

(1) Two friends, Tim and Fred, planned to go for a walk in the forest. They packed their knapsacks, carried them on their shoulders and started out.

(2) They walked and walked until they were tired. So, they sat down to rest. Suddenly, they heard a noise. Then, they saw a big bear. They were frightened and started to run away. The big bear ran after them. He got nearer and nearer.

Guess what will happen :

1. Will the bear eat the boys ?
2. Will they escape ?
3. Will anyone come to save them ?

(1) Tim saw a low branch hanging from a tree. He quickly climbed on top of the tree. He didn't think about his friend Fred.

(2) Fred was not fast. He could not climb the tree.

The bear was right behind him. Fred was very frightened now. He fell on the ground. The bear found him face down on the ground, not breathing.

Guess what will happen to Fred :

1. Will the bear eat him ?
2. Will the bear go away ?
3. Will his friend Tim help him ?

The bear put his nose near Fred's ear then he sniffed and sniffed. He wanted to know whether Fred was dead or not. Then, he finally stopped sniffing.

The bear decided that Fred was dead. Bears do not touch dead meat. So, he went away.

When the bear disappeared in the forest, Tim slowly climbed down the tree. He went to Fred and asked him : « What did Master Bear tell you ? » Fred was angry. He looked at Tim and said : « »

Can you guess what the bear told Fred ?
