

Adam and Eve Don't Touch That Tree!

By Jill Kemp
Illustrated by Richard Gunther

God made a man called Adam and put him in the garden of Eden,
to look after all the animals.
But Adam was lonely.

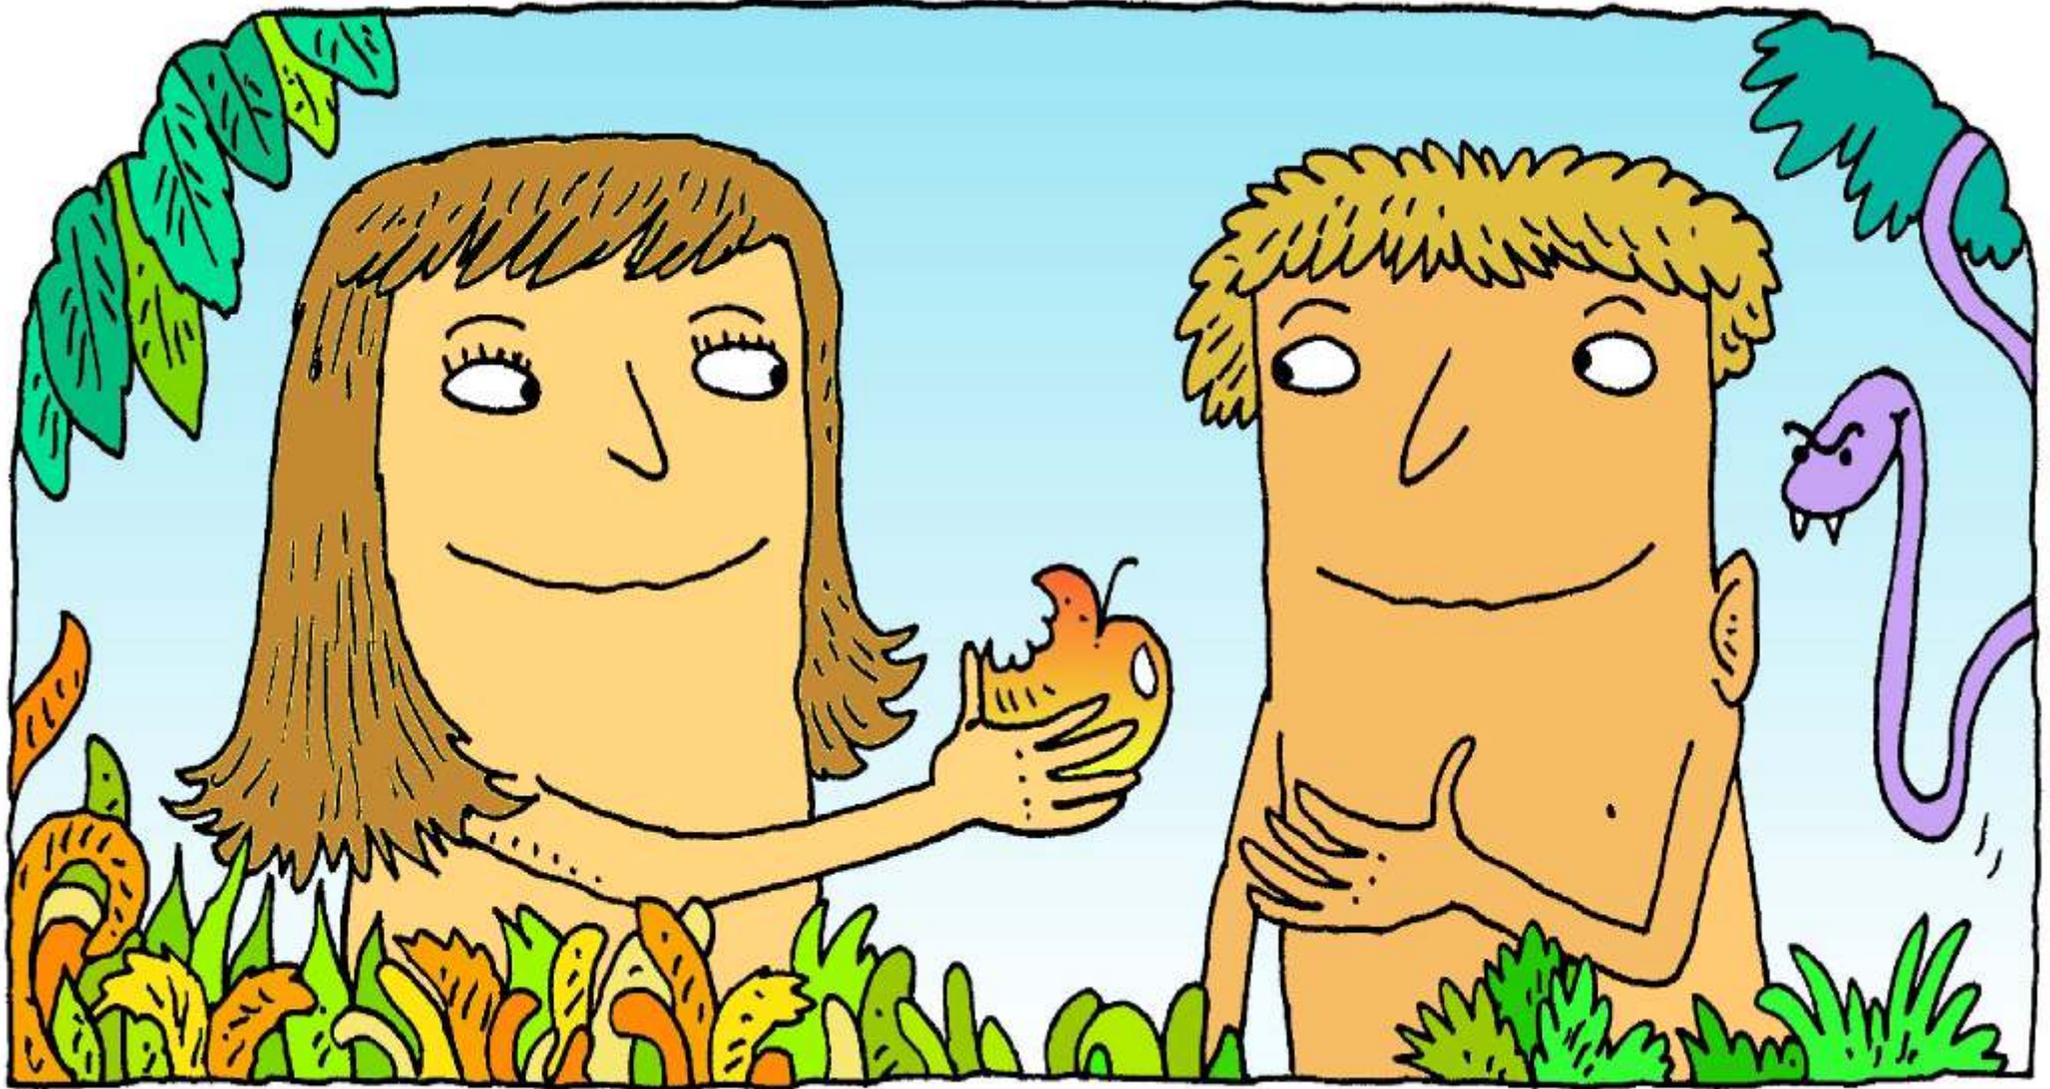

So, God made Eve.
She was Adam's best friend.
Adam and Eve lived together in the garden of Eden.

There were trees with fruit to eat.
But, in the middle of the garden,
there was a VERY SPECIAL tree.
God said that they must not touch it.

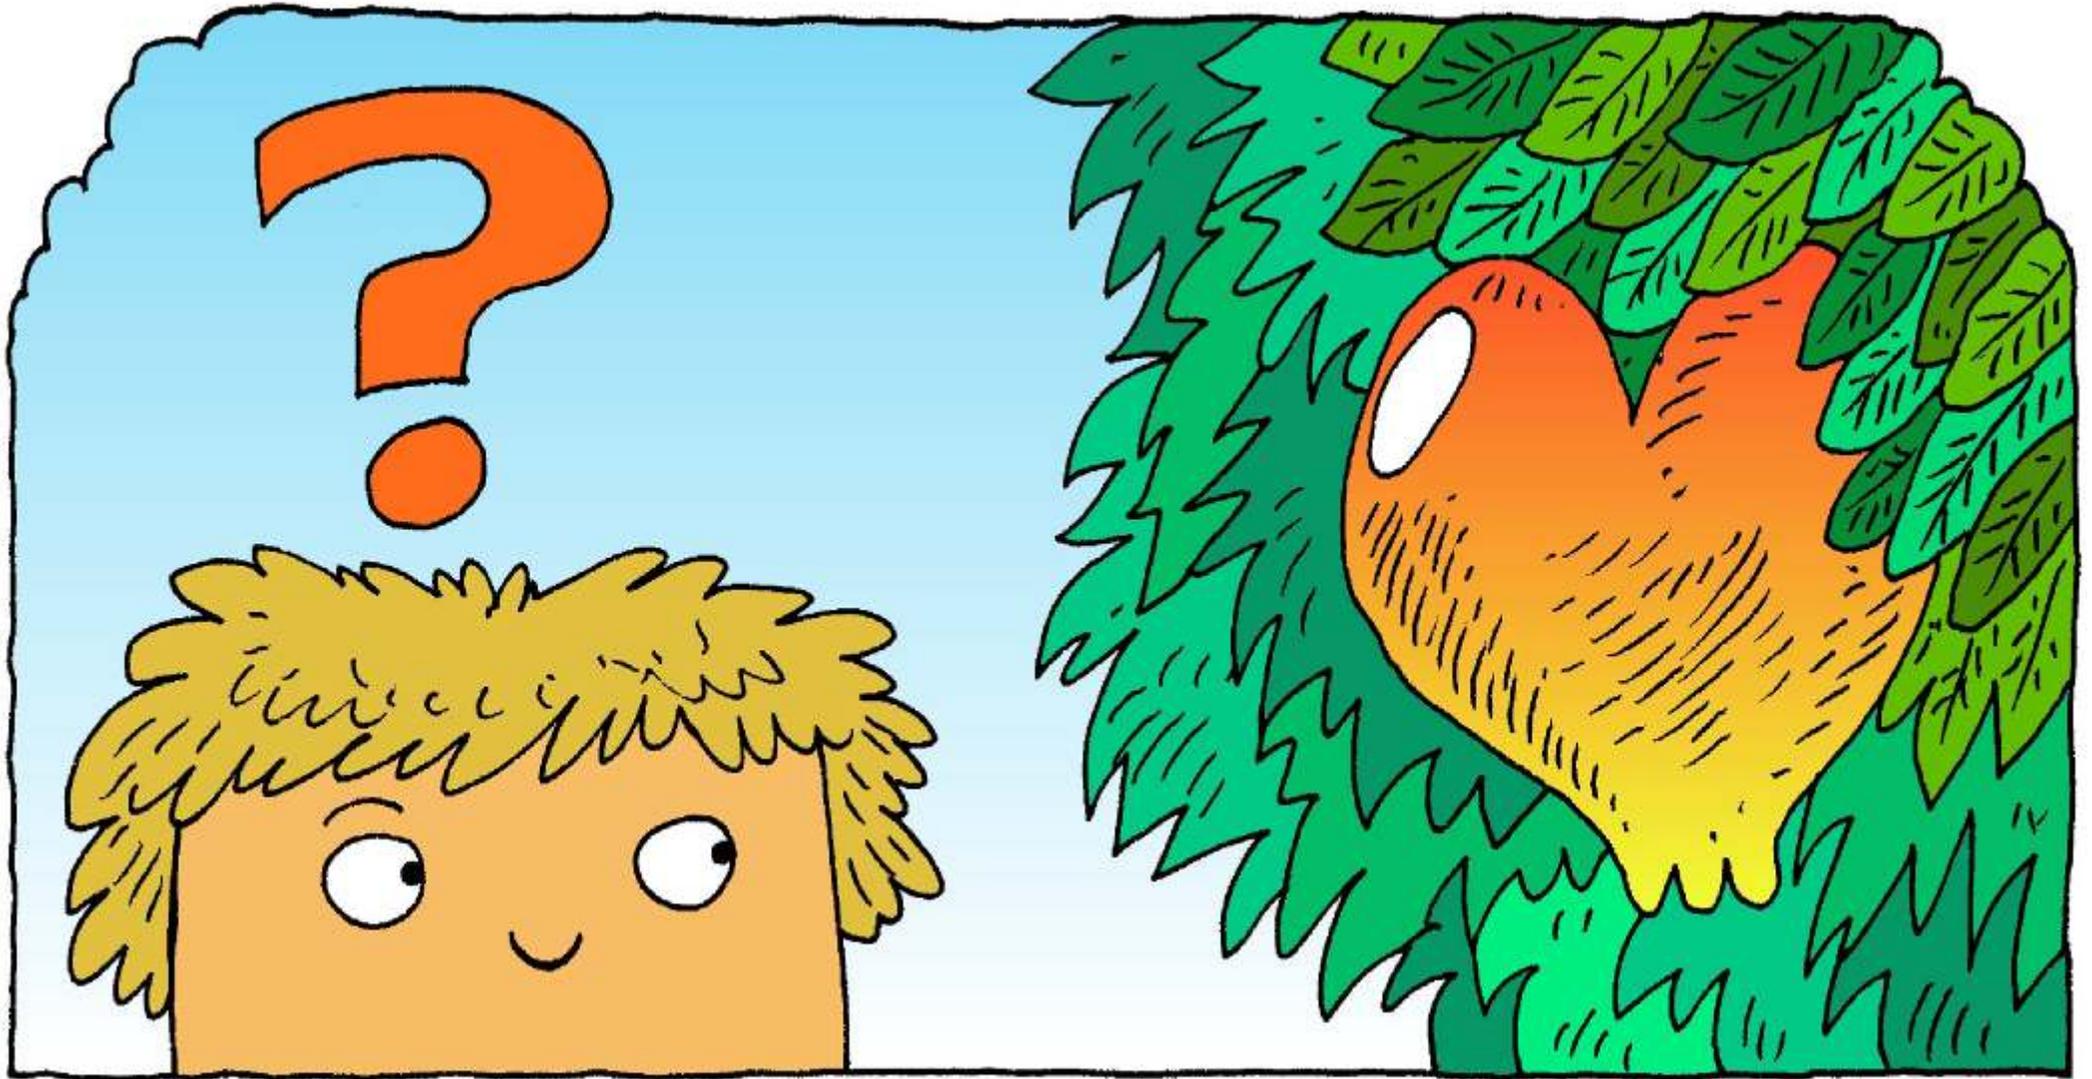

One day, Eve was walking in the garden
near the “Don’t Touch” tree.
Sneaky Snake said, “Look at this nice fruit.
Eating it will make you clever like God.”

Eve looked and saw that it was VERY nice.
She sniffed it.
Then she had a little bite.
She even gave some to Adam.

God was sad and Adam and Eve had to leave the lovely garden
because they had not done
what was good and right.

God loves you and knows what is best for you.
When you are going to do something you shouldn't,
remember to choose to do what God tells us in the Bible is good and right.
