Cinderella

1

Once upon a time, there lived a girl named Cinderella. Cinderella was smart, kind, and beautiful. Her father loved her very much, and she loved him.

Cinderella had a stepmother and two stepsisters, too. They did not love Cinderella. They were jealous of her and were never kind.

Cinderella had to do all of the chores. She mopped the floors and washed all of the dirty dishes. She dusted, scrubbed, and polished every single thing in the house.

chores = corvées

One day, Cinderella's family received an invitation to a ball. The prince was having a dance and inviting all of the young women in the kingdom.

1/ Circle the title.

2/ Underline the details that show that Cinderella had to work hard.

Cinderella

3

Cinderella ironed her stepsisters' dresses. She brushed their hair and fixed their bows. Then she waved good-bye as they skipped off to the ball. Cinderella was not allowed to go. After everyone left the house, Cinderella sat alone by the fireplace and cried. Tears streamed down her beautiful face. « Oh, how I wish that I could go to the ball », Cinderella sobbed. « I wish that I had a beautiful dress to wear. »

ironed = repassa

Just then, a tiny woman with wings flew through the window. She had a wand in her hand. It was Cinderella's fairy godmother !

wand = baguette
magique

4

« Why are you crying, my dear ? » the fairy godmother asked Cinderella.

« I want to go to the ball, too, » cried Cinderella.

« Then you shall go ! » said the fairy godmother.

Cinderella's fairy godmother waved her wand quickly in the air. Poof ! A pumpkin transformed into a golden coach. Six mice turned into a team of horses to pull the coach. Whoosh !

Cinderella's old clothes were changed into a beautiful pink and silver gown and two glass slippers.

1/ Circle in the picture, the fairy godmother's wand.

2/ Circle the two things that Cinderella wishes for.
