

15. You see me around Halloween together with a witch.
16. This place is inhabited or visited by ghosts.
17. A dead body that has been dried and preserved.
18. A thing used for sweeping. It has a long handle and a brush of straws at the one end.
19. A very wise bird!
20. A large, edible, orange-yellow fruit often carved for the celebration in October.
21. A bird with a long, stout bill, black feathers, and a wedge-shaped tail.
22. "Trick or Treat" is what we say when we go from door to door.
23. A monster with a green head and green hands.
24. A drink having medical, poisonous, or magical powers.
25. You can put me in the garden; for instance where you have strawberries. The birds will not come to eat the red berries. They will be too scared because of me.
26. I am a tiny animal. I make a web to catch my breakfast, lunch or dinner.
27. The bony framework of the head.
28. The bones of a human being make up this!

