

My Little Weekly / February 19th 2020

A LA UNE

Sea creatures appeared in Scotland !

The light festival Spectra took place in the Scottish city of Aberdeen last week. The theme was 'Scotland's coasts and waters'. Artworks depicting creatures from the depths of the oceans were on display.

DID YOU KNOW

Aberdeen is the third largest city in Scotland, after Glasgow and Edinburgh.

night - window - tentacle - street lamp - artwork - building

PHOTO OF THE WEEK

A car fell into this hole in Brentwood, England, last week. The hole appeared in this road after Storm Ciara. It hit Northern Europe (Ireland, the UK...).

