VERSE 2:

Now Jimmy didn't like his place in this world of ours
Where the elephant man broke strong men's necks when he'd had too many Powers,
So sad to see the grieving of the people that I'm leaving
And he took the road for God knows in the morning.

VERSE 3:

The years passed by the times had changed I grew to be a man
I learned to love the virtues of sweet Sally MacLennane
I took the jeers and drank the beers and I crawled back home at dawn
And ended up a barman in the morning.

VERSE 4:

I played the pump and took the hump and watered whiskey down
I talked of whores and horses to the men who drank the brown
I heard them say that Jimmy's making money far away
Some people left for heaven without warning.

VERSE 5:

When Jimmy came back home he was surprised that they were gone
He asked me all the details of the train that they went on
Some people they are scared to croak, but Jimmy drank until he choked
And took the road for heaven in the morning.

 We had three million sides of old blind horses' hides
 We had four million barrels of bones
 We had five million hogs and six million dogs
 Seven million barrels of porter
 We had eight million bails of old nanny goats' tails
 In the hold of the Irish Rover.

VERSE 3:

There was awl Mickey Coote who played hard on his flute
 When the ladies lined up for a set
 He was tootin' with skill for each sparkling quadrille
 Though the dancers were fluther'd and bet
 With his smart witty talk he was cock of the walk
 And he rolled the dames under and over
 They all knew at a glance when he took up his stance
 That he sailed in the Irish Rover.

There was Barney McGee from the banks of the Lee
 There was Hogan from County Tyrone
 There was Johnny McGurk who was scared stiff of work
 And a man from Westmeath called Malone
 There was Slugger O'Toole who was drunk as a rule
 And Fighting Bill Treacy from Dover
 And your man, Mick MacCann, from the banks of the Bann
 Was the skipper of the Irish Rover.

VERSE 6:

We had sailed seven years when the measles broke out
 And the ship lost its way in the fog
 And that whale of a crew was reduced down to two
 Just myself and the Captain's old dog
 Then the ship struck a rock; oh Lord, what a shock
 The bulkhead was turned right over
 Turned nine times around and the poor old dog was drowned
 And the last of the Irish Rover.

VERSE 2:

In blood and death 'neath a screaming sky
I lay down on the ground
And the arms and legs of other men
Were scattered all around
Some cursed some prayed some prayed then cursed
Then prayed then bled some more
And the only thing that I could see
Was a pair of brown eyes that was looking at me
But when we got back labelled parts one to three
There was no pair of brown eyes waiting for me.

VERSE 3:

I looked at him he looked at me
All I could do was hate him
While Ray and Philomena sang
Of my elusive dreams
I saw the streams the rolling hills
Where his brown eyes were waiting
And I thought about a pair of brown eyes
That waited once for me.

VERSE 4:

So drunk to hell I left the place
Sometimes crawling sometimes walking,
A hungry sound came across the breeze
So I gave the walls a talking
And I heard the sounds of long ago
From the old canal
And the birds were whistling in the trees
Where the wind was gently laughing.

 On a rainy night in Soho
 The wind was whistling all its charms
 I sang you all my sorrows
 You told me all your joys
 Whatever happened to that old song
 To all those little girls and boys.

VERSE 3:
 Sometimes I wake up in the morning

 Covered in a cloak of silence

 I never think about the last.

In Manhattan's desert twilight
 In the death of afternoon
 We stepped hand in hand on Broadway
 Like the first man on the moon
 And "The Blackbird" broke the silence
 As you whistled it so sweet
 And in Brendan Behan's footsteps
 I danced up and down the street.

Then we said goodbye to Broadway
 Giving it our best regards
 Tipped our hats to Mister Cohan
 Dear old Times Square's favourite bard
 Then we raised a glass to J. F. K.
 And a dozen more besides
 When I got back to my empty room
 I suppose I must have cried.

CHORUS 2:

Thousands are sailing
 Again across the ocean
 Where the hand of opportunity
 Draws tickets in a lottery
 Postcards we're mailing
 Of sky-blue skies and oceans
 From rooms the daylight never sees
 Where lights don't glow on Christmas trees
 But we dance to the music and we dance.

D.% CHORUS 3:

Thousands are sailing
 Across the Western Ocean
 Where the hand of opportunity
 Draws tickets in a lottery
 Where'er we go we celebrate
 The land that makes us refugees
 From fear of priests with empty plates
 From guilt and weeping effigies
 And we dance to the music and we dance.

VERSE 2:

He fought the champ in Pittsburgh
And he slashed him to the ground
He took on Tiny Tartanella
And it only went one round
He never had no time for reds
For drink or dice or whores
And he never threw a fight
Unless the fight was right
So they sent him to the war.

CHORUS:

Fare thee well gone away
There's nothing left to say
With a slainte Joe and Erin go
My love's in Amerikay
The calling of the rosary
Spanish wine from far away
I'm a free born man of the U. S. A.

VERSE 3:

This morning on the harbour
When I said goodbye to you
I remember how I swore
That I'd come back to you one day
And as the sunset came to meet
The evening on a hill
I told you I'd always love you
I always did and always will.

CHORUS:

Fare thee well gone away
'Cept to say adieu
To your eyes as blue
As the water in the bay
And to big Jim Dwyer
The man of wire
Who was often heard to say
I'm a free born man of the U.S.A.
